

Chapter 5 – Web Links

<http://www.ethicaltrade.org/> - the website of the Ethical Trading Initiative. This provides details of their members and also the base code of practice developed by ETI. Students can also find a number of specific case studies.

<http://europa.eu/institutions/> - the group website of the EU Commission, the Council of the EU, the European Parliament and the European Court of Justice. This is good source of information relation to EU legislation. Research in relation to employment relations across the EU can be found at www.eurofound.europa.eu/.

<http://www.labourbehindthelabel.org/> - the website of Labour Behind The Label – a campaigning group that monitors labour standards in the supply chain of leading fashion brands. You can find reports on specific brands and organisations evaluating their efforts to improve labour standards.

<http://www.clb.org.hk/en/> - this is the website of the China Labour Bulletin. CLB are an NGO which seeks to defend and promote the rights of workers in China. The site is a useful source of news on employment relations issues in China – particularly on conflict and there is also research, analysis and podcasts.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4dQGI_lswYY&list=PL8yAp_ZVVXIyQ88oKqXbj_hY2VXB0UPLq&index=2 - Fault Lines - Made in Bangladesh - this is a documentary made by Al Jazeera in 2013 into a factory fire in Bangladesh which highlighted problems with labour standards and health and safety.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pEbFnAMHHps> - This film looks at the Rana Plaza disaster which took place in 2013, in which a garment factory collapsed killing 1,134 workers.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fj9mCB42UTc> – this video, made by the ILO, looks at attempts to improve conditions in the wake of the Rana Plaza disaster.