

Guilt

By

Jack Florence

1 INT. LLANEDI HOUSE. AFTERNOON 1

JOHN receives a phone call saying that there has been an accident and that his wife has not made it through the treatment that she has undergone. He walks into the living room and sits down in-front of the fireplace, John just stares at the fire.

John lies down on the floor and closes his eyes and just listens.

CUT

2 INT. LLANEDI HOUSE. EARLY MORNING 2

NARRATOR
(off-screen)
Reminiscent of what has befallen
John.

The loss of his wife, rapid decline of body and mind. Many weeks have passed since the accident, these unfortunate events has lead to John's break down and void of emotions bar one... Guilt.

JOHN wakes up in the living room, he sits up and looks around the room. John heads to the kitchen and grabs his keys, he puts on his shoes in a sloppy manner and leaves through the door.

CUT

3 EXT. WOODLAND - LLANEDI FOREST. 3

JOHN walks for a while and comes across a woodland.

John enters the woodland area where he decides to take in his surroundings. he bends down to do up his shoelace.

John looks up, he sees someone further in the woodland.

The mysterious figure disappears behind a tree, John runs over to where he saw the figure vanish.

He discovers that there is no one there.

CUT

- 4 EXT. WOODLAND - LLANEDI. DAY 4
- JOHN wakes up on the ground.
- He sits up and decides to look around the woods once more, John sees the mysterious figure and rushes towards a possible danger.
- The figure disappears behind a tree again.
- CUT
- 5 EXT. WOODLAND - LLANEDI. DAY 5
- JOHN wakes up again, someone walks up to John.
- John stays still and doesn't do anything.
- The stranger stands there for a moment wondering if John is transfixed by something.
- Stranger offers his hand as a gesture to help John up.
- John was staggered and does nothing.
- John being preoccupied with whatever has captivated him, the stranger felt forced to leave his vicinity.
- John lies back down on the floor and closes his eyes.
- CUT
- 6 EXT. STREET - LLANEDI. DAY 6
- JOHN wakes up, he remains lying down on the floor.
- John looks right then left but doesn't see anything around besides trees, a garden and a driveway.
- John sits up and checks himself over to make sure he is not hurt.
- John stands up and brushes himself off, he spots someone in the distance and decides to walks towards them.
- person starts walking away, John follows down the driveway.
- John sees the person heading toward his house, person runs through the doorway and vanishes immediately after.
- John follows suit and doesn't see the person anywhere.

7

INT. LLANEDI HOUSE. DAY

7

JOHN decides to take a look around his house to see what he can find.

John decides to head out of the house after having checked over it.

John heads towards the doorway and walks out into complete white.