Reading Antiquity: A Survey of Ancient Literature (CLCS4009)
Lecture 33: Using your essay feedback:
a self-reflective exercise to improve your learning and essay-writing skills

Essay Feedback Task: Please read very carefully through the feedback and comments included within your essay and on the assignment feedback form and then consider and answer the following questions:

1. How long did you spend researching and writing your essay? Do you think that this was long enough? Why / why not?

2. Having read your feedback, do you think that you will spend longer researching and writing your next coursework assignment? Why / why not?

3. From the feedback attached to your essay, what do you think was the major strength(s) of your essay?

4. From the feedback, what do you think were the major weaknesses of your essay?

5. List at least three areas that you think you need to improve upon in terms of researching and writing your assignments? (Note: it would be good to comment on the content of your essay and its style / presentation).

6. Do you understand how to correctly present your essay in relation to the following areas: references, bibliography, presentation of text (1.5 or double spacing)?

7. Do you have any questions, queries or areas of confusion regarding researching, writing or submitting your essay? Please include any other comments here.
