

#TeamPsych

We have organised some fantastic guest speakers to come in and present their research, career pathways and volunteering opportunities.

Talks are open to all psychology, mental health and MSc students.

Weds 7th
Feb 12pm TK205

Weds 21st
Feb 12pm
Port Eynon Conference Room

Weds 7th
March 2pm TK205

Mon 26th March 11.30am
TK204

(This will replace the Level 6 Abnormal and Clinical Seminar)

Dr Denitza Williams Research Associate at Cardiff University School of Medicine

Talk Title:: 'Not one decision, one clinician and one encounter': shared decision making in clinical practice.

Dr Grace McCutchan
Research Associate at Cardiff University School of Medicine PhD in Health Psychology, with expertise in the socioeconomic inequalities in cancer and intervention development. Current research focuses on the psychosocial determinants of late lung cancer symptom presentation in high risk groups.

Sara Pilkinton
Tenovus Community Fundraiser for West Wales

Volunteering, fundraising and essential skills you can acquire for your CV

Elizabeth Brimacombe Chartered Counselling Psychologist

Career pathway and current work including working within the Eating Disorder clinic in Swansea