GAMING & ASTRONOMY EXPERIENCE

WHERE IS IT?

The National Waterfront Museum,
Oystermouth Rd, Swansea SA1 3RD

WHAT TIME IS IT?

10:30am - 3:30pm

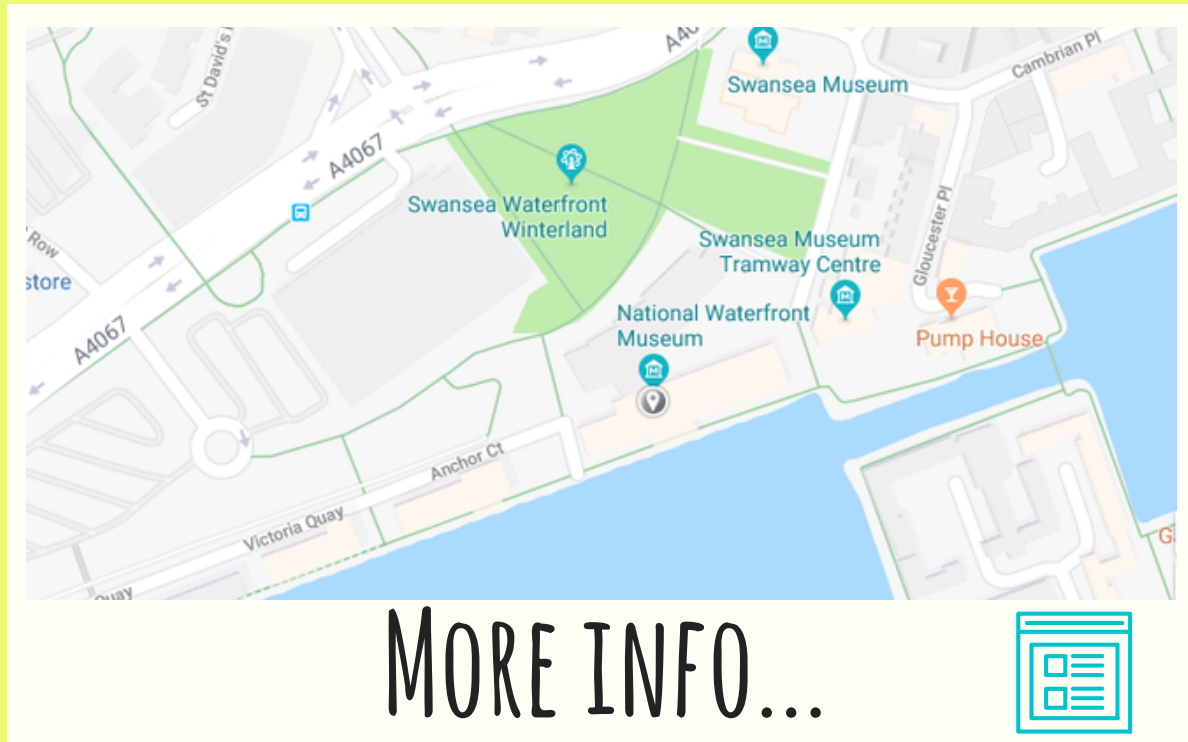

WHAT ARE WE DOING?

We are going to be visiting two exhibitions today;
Generation Games Exhibition: which has a collection of games consoles from the 1970's up to the latest in virtual reality which you can try out.

Amazing Astronomy Day: We are travelling through space in a 3D, sensory experience in the Star Dome.

THE NATIONAL WATERFRONT MUSEUM

IS THE CENTRE ACCESSIBLE?

The Museum is a very accessible venue.

Wheelchair-accessible toilets and baby changing facilities are available on the ground floor and first floor.

The Museum is registered with the Changing Room Consortium with a fully accessible changing room and toilet. Two HCAs will be there all day for personal care needs.

HOW DO I GET THERE?

By car: There are five designated parking bays for blue badge holders located on East Burrows Place.

By public transport: Bus numbers 58, 84, 965 and X5A all pass through Oystermouth Road. If you'd like a volunteer to meet you at the bus stop, please let Jayne know in advance.

SATURDAY, 10TH MARCH

YOUR VOICE - YOUR CHOICE

WHERE IS IT?

Antioch Centre, Copperworks Rd,
Llanelli, SA15 2NE.

WHAT TIME IS IT?

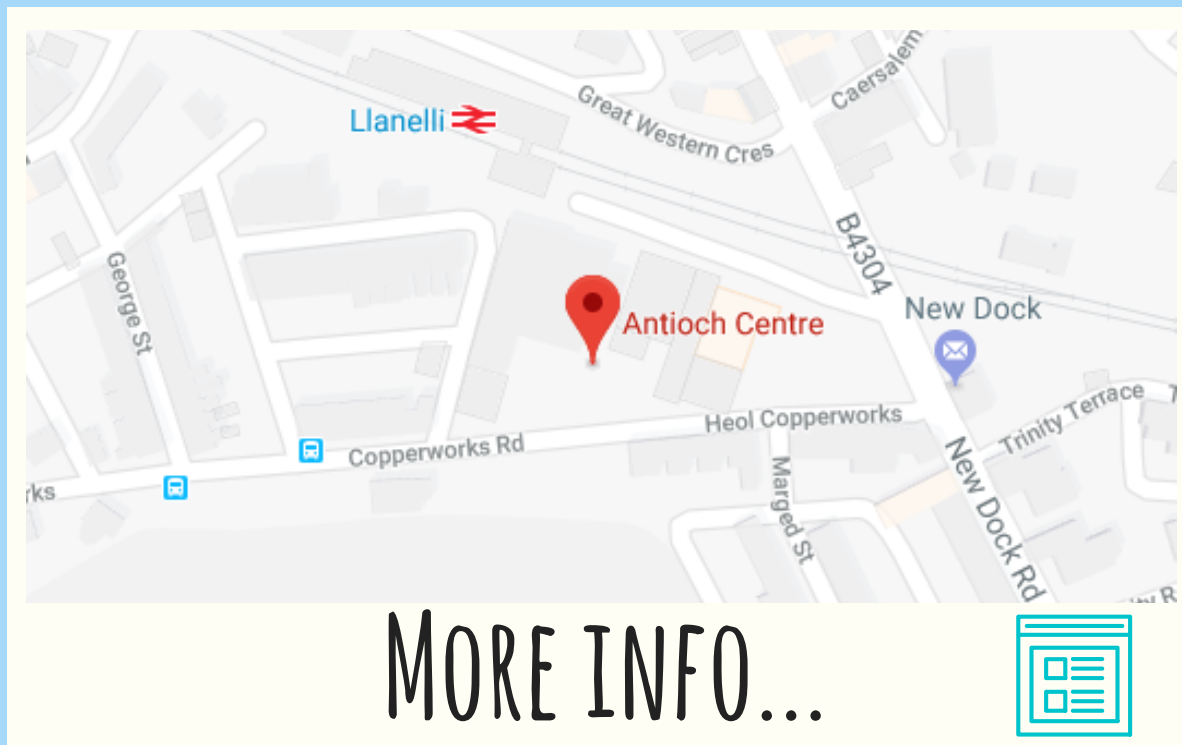

10:30am - 3pm

WHAT ARE WE DOING?

You've got a few visitors coming to see you today; Youth Cymru are going to talk about campaigns you're interested in, and how you can make your voice heard; Then Trevor Palmer, Director of Disability Wales, is coming in to talk to you about exciting opportunities he can help you with in the future; AND Little Voices are coming to talk about the power behind your opinions.

THE ANTIOCH CENTRE

IS THE CENTRE ACCESSIBLE?

The Antioch Centre is very accessible with ramps and even flooring throughout. Toilets are fully accessible but do not have hoists or changing tables. If you require a hoist, please let Jayne know in advance.

Two HCAs will be there all day for personal care needs.

HOW DO I GET THERE?

There are very easy links to the Antioch Centre by car and public transport. There is ample car parking outside the venue with disabled spaces next to the ramp.

Llanelli train station is directly behind the building.

Buses L1, L21 and L27 all stop at the Copperworks Road bus stop. If you would like a volunteer to meet you at the station or the bus stop, please let Jayne know in advance.
