

current (and future) criminal threats that exist

Cyber crime

Cyber enabled. Online exploitation.

Online harm- young people - sexual offences - fraud terrorism

Significant issues around current outlook of economy and how that will impact on policing such as increases in more traditional acquisitive crime plus potential for increased public unrest and complexity of policing that with current resources

Organised immigration crime, cyber, fraud, criminal exploitation of children, expanding drugs markets

Online Fraud. Sextortion.

Fraud challenges Technology advancements Cross boundary and international crime Modern day slavery County lines activity

Complex crime, e.g. cyber, plus organised criminality and acquisitive crime - impacting communities

Cyber crime

current (and future) criminal threats that exist

Cyber enabled fraud . The rise of big data and internet of things . The emergence of 3d printing .

operational leadership challenges created by these threats and trends:

