Response

The course is great and very interesting. It has challenged my ideas and thoughts in a positive manner, but as a non astrologer I would have welcomed a section/lecture on astrologers and (in general) different types of astrology.

I've very much appreciated the 1:1 sessions with Nick during the first module. This helped to bridge the gap as someone who comes from a non astrological background.

Response

This module was extremely well presented and managed by the Tutors. Nick Campion, Bernadette Brady, and Darrelyn Gunzburg were an amazing team, clearly dedicated to the development and success of the students. The guidance and support each of the Tutors offered, in addition to the course material, was impressive and very much appreciated. The weekly classes were very well structured, interesting, thought provoking and informative. Coming from a professional corporate environment I was pleasantly surprised at the quality of presentation and content offered in this forum. I was also surprised at the level of student participation and interaction that was possible in an online environment which was encouraged and effectively facilitated by the Tutors with beneficial results. I thoroughly enjoyed this Module and gained a great deal from the learning and the process. I am extremely grateful to Nick, Bernadette, and Darrelyn for making this such a positive experience. I am excited to continue within the program.

The delivery of this module covers a lot of ground. Some students may enjoy a more satisfying learning outcome if an option of a 2-part introduction module was made available.

Thank you for your response
