

STORY ABOUT ME

My name is Yovana Mamani Torrez I'm 42 years old , and I'm studying Health Care Practice.

I like to share a little about myself, my goals, and my Inspirations.

I came from Spain on 15 February 2015 to London. I was working cleaning office and hotel's and cleaning night shift buses whit (Go ahead Company),than it was a different jobs in my life because in Spain I was working whit adult people care whit independent company of the state so ,I started with enthusiasm, joy, and love to give a little help to sick patients. There I learned a lot from the sick patient with Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, and memory loss. It was a great experience in my life. I learned to give love, I learned to listen, talk, and help people with different illnesses and different needs.

In January 2023 I decided visit Swansea like a tourist and I decided move here, whit my daughter's Joyce 9 years old , Jaylin 6 years old (actually) ,because we find beautiful and quiet place in Swansea , honestly the first year was very difficult ,because we missed to friends and the family ,but the economic situation and expensive rents and food was horrible situations for me in Great London .

My Goal

Help and care for patients . Make a positive impact in people's lives

"My main goal is to become a Nurse I want to help and care for patients, making a positive impact in their lives. I believe that even small acts of care and attention can really make a differ.

My Inspirations

Passion for helping others.

Love talking and listening to people.

"I'm inspired by my passion for helping others. I genuinely enjoy talking and listening to people, understanding their needs, and being there to support them during difficult times. This is what drives me to pursue nursing."

I have a little secret I want to share about my Inspirations.

When I was childhood my mother and father disappeared of my life I never understand why?. But my grandma she give me love and protection and teaching to heal people with natural medicine plants I learned from her to take care of sick people when I was a child, people visited my grandmother from different cities to be healed by my grandmother then we looked for plants in the forest near the river to prepare natural medicines she was very intelligent she taught me to give love and care that we all need in this world today she is not with me now , but her love and her teachings are with me . She's my big Inspirations in my life and beautiful example of life.

My Hobbies

Traveling ,Music

When I'm not studying , I love traveling and exploring new places. Music is also a big part of my life , it helps me relax and make me feel happy.

I love travel to Bolivia because is a incredible country always find new places for tourists is diverse and the cultural dancers always party in different cities whit different traditions and different foods I love explore that.
