

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
You have provided very good evidence that the solution can view edit create records for each entity. However there is a lack of reporting in your solution. Also while you have described the user roles you haven't provided evidence that you have implemented these user roles within your solution. You could have included SQL scripts for user creation.	25	15
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
Tables are normalised to a good standard, however you need to provide evidence of the process you went through going from 1nf to 3nf. You have given a very good description of the design against user requirements. The data dictionary is missing from your submission, Make sure you read the rubric before submitting. Your ERD doesn't entirely match with your table creation. Your tables should be created from your ERD.	20	11
4. Practical Application Skills
SQL scripts provided to create tables. However you haven't supplied enough evidence for any reporting SQL scripts. Forms have been created in line with the requirements. However you are missing a reporting section of the solution. Your table solution is very good with good knowledge of PK and FK relationships.	45	27
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
Very good presented document. Well presented throughout. When adding a bibliography it is recommended that this is placed at the bottom of the document. Also when presenting screenshots make sure they are labelled and don't try and fit them all on same page.	10	7
