

Research Methods in Counselling - Project Proposal - Guidance

Aims

UKES Survey

IP Project – Activity – SPEED ENGAGEMENT

Assessment 2 - Guidance

Module Feedback - Online

Individual Tutorials

Oral presentation Guidance

Points to consider

You will need to include a 'title' slide – You can be creative with this title slide

Approximately 12-15 slides

Three points per slide

Images or pictures – provide that creative and original quality, but must be academic in nature and referenced accordingly.

Font size of 28-30 is good

Structure

Introduction (2-3 minutes)

The introduction is the point at which the presenter explains the content and purpose of the presentation.

This is your introduction to your process in addressing the that various points that are being considered.

This is a vitally important part of your talk as you will need to gain the audience's interest and confidence
(please see below website - University Leicester)

<http://www2.le.ac.uk/offices/ld/resources/presentations/structuring-presentation>

Main points 10-12 Minutes

Key Words - that are being explored and considered

Background - providing context for your chosen research the WHY? Linking theory to your exploration.

Research Question(s) – What questions are emerging

Discussion - 3-4 points you wish to share with the group about your research (references will be required)

Methods – How you will continue to explore your topic area.

Main points cont.

References and authors under consideration

Ethical Consideration

Potential implications with respect to your research.

Conclusion

Conclusion (3-5 minutes) Leaving room for questions and comments.

This is the stage at which you can summarise the content and purpose of your talk, offer an overview of what has been achieved and make a lasting impact with in the group.... Go back to title or questions, title,

Reference List

Reference list at the end and also using references within the text of your presentation.

Further Points to consider:

Have a clear thread throughout your presentation.

Transitions are the signposts that help the audience navigate their way through your presentation. They can help divide information up into sub-sections, link different aspects of your talk and show progression through your topic. Importantly, transitions draw the audience's attention to the process of the presentation as well as its content.

Use of Images

Please use images or pictures that might be appropriate for your presentation. They can help with the transitions and create an impact within your presentation.

Resources

University of Leicester

<http://www2.le.ac.uk/offices/ld/resources/presentations/structuring-presentation>

Next Class – Monday, 29th April – Presentation Practice

Module questionnaire

Please complete the Module Questionnaire at the top of the Module Page.

