Comments:

- Research & Analysis-Theme is clear portraits, and the research is interesting along with your annotation which explains the reasons why you do and don't like particular portraits which then feeds into your working practice. Very good observation about Beardsley's composition, it is one of his strongest aspects and is very important in works of art, in some cases more important than the subject.
- Development/Experimentation with Media- really good that you took on board the suggestion of mis-registration and tried it out, in some cases it was a bit extreme and the reason it worked with the print so well was because there was a difference between the line work and the softer toned colour.
Artbook –Lovely well made art book and have used it to the full.
Crayons –Interesting pencil colour experiments.
Pastels –An amazing image of 'The Chocolate girl', also good observation of the contrasting colours used in Degas nudes. Your pastel experiments were interesting especially the oil ones
Watercolour –lovely references for the watercolours - Bedouins such a fluid piece and amazing tonal control with further watercolour studies
Oil –Tried it and liked it but made a good point about the drying time.
Acrylic –Like the way you reinterpreted your dry brush experiments with this media.
Own Choice –Very good at marker pen work
Digital –Nice digital eye study. Very successful minimalistic approach to digital painting on the 'police station' piece.

Print –You know what I think about your print-the silk screen to me it is still a very strong piece of work.
Well done

3. Technical skill- Lovely final pieces they work very well as a set and the media used for each one is very effective. The different types of typography work very well for each image
 4. Subject Knowledge- Some indication of in depth subject knowledge, this also relates to the comment in the personal learning and development marking criteria. You now need to fully apply your research, if you are confused about this we can sit down and talk about it.
 5. Presentation & Communication-very good presentation and communication- it is so much easier when a folder is handed in and all the work is clearly annotated and well presented well done here Rhiannon much appreciated.
 6. Personal Learning & Development- very clear examples in your research book and sketch book of reflective processes, it shows clearly that you are able to define your strengths and weaknesses and apply this information to your working practice. It would be very good in future, as you are so adept at critiquing other artists work, to apply your observations more rigorously. Always attending and taking part in sessions.
 7. Professional practice- You have read the brief well and have worked to the relevant standards-and take control of your own management. Very organized.
- Well done Rhiannon now you need to take your art work to the next level. I really enjoyed going through your project Very well balanced overall result. I would advise that you work from life in your sketch books more so that you get to grips with tone and colour so that your work becomes more refined.

COMMON ASSESSMENT AND MARKING CRITERIA

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA	OUTRIGHT FAIL	MARGINAL FAIL	SATISFACTORY	GOOD	VERY GOOD	EXCEPTIONAL
	0-34%	35-39%	40-49%	50-59%	60-69%	70-79%	80-100%
1. Research & Analysis Systematic exploration and selection of sources; effective interpretation and evaluation of findings.	Limited or no material presented with limited or no evidence of critical enquiry.	Material presented indicates a basic degree of insight and is of limited relevance to the task.	Material presented is adequate and relevant demonstrating the application of standard research techniques.	Material presented shows a good range of sources, is well organised and interpreted in a manner relevant to the task.	Connections have been made between sources and qualitative judgements have been made in the interpretation of these findings.	Research is extensive, well documented and critically evaluated with new personal judgements made and applied.	Research and exploration is impressive both in extent and depth and the level of interpretation and critical insight is highly advanced.
2. Development Formulation of innovative and effective concepts through appropriate application of problem solving, creative experimentation and testing methods.	Limited or no engagement with the practical and creative processes of ideation.	Basic proposals have been made but limited in scope and lacking in considered and focused development processes.	Proposals are adequate and are delivered within a familiar and well established framework of methods.	Proposed concepts are formulated with a good degree of detail through the use of a variety of systematic and exploratory methods.	Concepts display innovative ideas within established territories, which are well resolved through sound practical and creative processes.	Proposals respond effectively to unfamiliar or new conceptual territories and expand perceptions of process and/or product.	Proposals both challenge and extend the conceptual territory and set new benchmarks for innovation and effectiveness within the field.
3. Technical Skill Effective utilisation of appropriate materials, tools and techniques and the level of skill demonstrated in their application to the realisation process.	Limited or no awareness and utilisation of tools and techniques are demonstrated.	Rudimentary processes may have been applied but without consideration and competence.	Skills demonstrated display adequate awareness and appropriate application of standard materials and methods.	Controlled application of a range of materials and methods with good standards of finishing evident.	Communication of intent is fully executed demonstrating diversity of process and effective technique.	Extensive and highly advanced technical skills in established processes demonstrating sensitivity and excellence in idea realisation.	Outstanding levels of technical skill in all aspects of the realisation process demonstrating the assimilation and development of cutting edge processes and techniques.
4. Subject Knowledge Understanding and application of concepts and underlying principles associated with the discipline and the specific context of study.	Unable to grasp or communicate key principles or knowledge.	Limited understanding and communication of key principles or knowledge.	Evidence of basic understanding of the relevant concepts and underlying principles.	Knowledge is accurate and effectively applied in relation to the specific context.	Knowledge is extensive and the understanding of the context exhibits awareness of the breadth and depth of established views.	Knowledge has been assimilated and individual and personal perspectives have been formulated and debated with effectiveness.	Discipline and context specific knowledge are substantive and a highly advanced synthesis of these elements creates new or expanded perspectives.
5. Presentation & Communication Clarity and effectiveness in the deployment of appropriate media to communicate a message relevant to specialist and non-specialist audiences.	Appropriate media for communication have not been identified or applied effectively.	Limited awareness of the audience and a lack of clarity and organisation are demonstrated.	Basic awareness of the audience and clarity of message is demonstrated in deployment of standard communication forms.	Selection and application of media and conventions show good understanding of the audience and context.	Communication media have been selected and deployed to maximise impact for the selected audience and context.	Individual stylistic approaches have been implemented to communicate to a diverse range of audiences in a highly compelling and effective way.	Presentation and communication methods employed are not only highly individual, compelling and effective but also combine media in an innovative way.
6. Personal Learning & Development Personal responsibility demonstrated in managing own learning through programme engagement, self-directed study and reflective practice.	Little or no responsibility taken for own learning demonstrated by poor attendance, engagement and reflection.	Inconsistency in programme engagement and poor awareness of personal learning and development needs.	Evidence of some reflective practice contributing to appropriate effort and engagement to further personal development.	Evidence of regular reflective practice and awareness of individual strengths and weaknesses demonstrable in core learning and self directed study.	Reflective practice and individual development is extended beyond core learning, is well managed and documented.	Full responsibility for own learning and development is evidenced in detail demonstrating critical appraisal of purpose, progress and future direction.	Outstanding level of engagement with all elements of the programme enhanced by the personal drive and passion to extend learning beyond established parameters and into new domains.
7. Professional Practice Demonstrates those attributes expected in professional practice including individual initiative, project management, collaborative working and inter-personal skills.	No demonstrable understanding of professional expectations and does not work effectively as an individual or with others.	Poor level of productivity as an individual or in a collaborative context, ineffective management and little understanding of professional life.	Demonstrates awareness of the relevant attributes for professional practice and delivers work to the minimum requirements as an individual and/or in collaboration.	Works to the relevant standards and meets most requirements as stipulated in both individual and team working scenarios.	Meets most or all of the relevant standards and in some areas exceeds the requirements as stipulated, taking control of some aspects of project management.	Often works above the relevant standards and exceeds the requirements as a team member, leader or individual in a variety of working scenarios	Always works well above the relevant standards and demonstrates outstanding individual and collaborative professional attributes in every working scenario encountered.
