

The background of the slide is the Seal of the United States Supreme Court. It features a central shield with thirteen stars and stripes, flanked by an eagle with wings spread, holding an olive branch and arrows. Above the eagle is a constellation of thirteen stars. The entire seal is encircled by a blue ring with the words "SUPREME COURT" in white, and an outer gold ring with thirteen stars.

In an American democracy, who loses?

Republicanism

In the history of western political thought, republicanism refers to a loose tradition or family of writers.

Machiavelli and his fifteenth-century Italian predecessors; English republicans Milton, Harrington, Sidney, and others; Montesquieu and Blackstone; eighteenth-century English commonwealthmen; and many founding-era Americans such as Jefferson, Madison, and Adams, to name a few.

Who loses?

- Attack on capitol, January 6th 2021
- "I call on this mob to pull back and allow the work of democracy to go forward" Joe Biden, 2021.
- Trump supporters.

Who wins?

The outcome of the attack on the US Capitol.

The followers of Joe Biden and the Democrats.

Conclusion

Clear line between HOW democracy works and why republicanism does not.

Different outcomes form the different leadership styles.
