

Introduction

Course Academic & Employability skills

By Selina Cole

Tutor Rita

Student ID 2018135

The qualification that I will need to qualified for my future career?

- The qualification, that I will need for my future career is Health & social care 3 and 4 qualification.

My present job that I'm working at right now is support worker with adult learning Disability

My future Career when I finish my Course that I'm studying right now

What is expected from me ?

- My main aim is to provide a Respite home and safe environment for children that has learning disabilities to give the parents guarding and break from there daily routine.

What I will be doing after finish my course?

- I will be working in Sierra Leone to know the cost of the project that I will be working on.

What I need to work on for the future?

- I will need to improve on my computer skills.

My Time Management Tools

- My time management tools are:
- To establish my goals
- Prioritize my roles
- To Learn to say no

Swot Analysis

Strength

I'm very ambitious person

Dedicated

Patience

them express themselves

Determined to achieve my goals to my full potential

Opportunities

Chance of challenge for employment and promotion

Increase opportunities for better employment or promotion

Weakness

To improve on taking criticism very well

Exercising patience

Listening to others to allow

Threats

Other people will start take my own ideas

Conclusion

- Open to criticism from others and taking advice from others also working as a team.
- To work harder to achieve my goals
- The excitement talking about my project

The End!

Thank you for listening to my presentation this morning

I'm open to answering any questions that you have for me