The Gibb's reflective cycle

Using the Gibbs reflective cycle, write a reflection of your learning journey on the LCLM 4001- Academic Skills Module. Your reflective writing should focus on your personal learning journey, including your strengths, areas for improvement, and the impact of the module on your academic and personal development. You should refer to specific experiences such as:

- Task 1 and Task 2
- Class activities and discussions (e.g., topics covered in class such as referencing and paraphrasing)
- Feedback received
- Skills you have developed

Write your reflection in the boxes below

Description (What happened? Describe the experience or experiences in class that you want to reflect on)	~~I need to improve refer with my paraphrasing skills and my~~ During the LCLM4001. I have been trying to improve my paraphrasing skills and references which I am still struggling with. I feel as if I am not capable of understanding it.

Feelings

(What were you thinking and feeling at the time?

How did you feel before / during / and after the experience?

Did you feel overwhelmed / confident / nervous?

Were you alone in feeling this way or did other students share your feelings?)

I feel as i am not capable to understand how to paraphrase and write a reference. I feel very ~~of~~ overwhelmed and nervous. Other students did not understand how i feel when i get nervous. My mind goes blank and. I have no way of expressing my feelings.

Evaluation

(What was good and bad about the experience?)

Looking back the over all experience of this module was very challenging and rewarding. The best part of the class was having on learning which I was referencing and paraphrasing was help full.

Analysis

(What sense can you make out of the situation?) Why was the situation positive or negative?

When things went well, what role did you play? When things went badly, can you explain why? Do you know how if other students felt the same as you? Why or why not?

This module has been instrumental in developing my academic skills. Before starting I did not appreciate the importance of referencing. Now I understand that proper referencing does not only prevent plagiarism but also strengthens my argument by showing that my are backed by reliable evidence.

I have also improved my paraphrasing effectively. I learned and understood that paraphrasing isn't just about changing words it about understanding ideas.

Conclusion

(What else could you have done? Or what could you have improved?)

Overall the LCM4001 academic skills module has had impact on my academic skills and personal development. My development in academic writing and referencing. I have confidence in writing my

Action Plan

(If you do it again, what would you do differently? What skills do you need to develop? And how do you plan to do this)

I will continue paraphrasing and summarising academic text working
I need to read more articles to understand academic language.
after my assignment I will review
the feedback and improve on specific areas to improve.
