Nearly all our meals are made fresh on the day in our cafe including plenty of options for vegetarians, gluten and dairy free dishes. aim to accommodate different requirements, so will adapt where we can to meet our customers' needs. In addition is good to know what the customers want more, and this question is the best way to get right answer. The base of finding is people like fresh food and coffee in second level regarding this feedback we should use local product as well. Optimistic people now a days try to use organic product in order to live healthy and to reduce chemicals products.

5.What kind of product do you buy?
