Why does an assistant psychologist position interest you?

I want to know what caught her eye in this particular of job position.

Can you tell me a little bit about your professional strengths?

I think in most job interviews this question is asked, I want to see if she can be reflective and offer a reasoned well-balanced answer.

When did you first become interested in a career in psychology?

I want to know in which point of life she thought about chasing this career.

What interests you the most about psychology?

Within the field of psychology, there are various areas of specialisation. Depending on your education and professional experience, you may have a greater interest in psychoanalysis, child development, cognitive psychology, group therapy or assessment. With this question i want to discover her specific skills to see if she is the best fit for the job.

What are your career goals?

As an interviewer i want to learn about her plans to see if they align with the organisation's objectives. Discuss goals that she believes may appeal to me as an interviewer.
