

Global Perspectives in Education

For learners, ESDGC is about....

- Encouraging self-care, respect for others, and awareness of important issues for the future.
- Recognising their roles in the school, local, and global communities;
- Learning to see connections between their studies and the larger world, as well as developing skills and examining issues to make informed decisions.

To be successful, ESDGC must involve the entire school community...

- Parents
- Carers
- Governors
- Visitors
- Non-teaching staff

“The real process of education should be the process of learning to think through the application of real problems.” - John Dewey
