Cover Letter

Dear Hiring Manager,

This letter is to show my interest in the Restaurant Manager job being offered by Westwood Recruitment Solutions Ltd for the restaurant in Notting Hill.

I've worked in the hospitality industry for more than ten years, including as Head Waiter at The Wolseley in London and as Floor Manager in Madrid. During that time, I've developed strong leadership, customer service, and operational skills that make me a great candidate for this job.

I have spent most of my career working in high-pressure, fast-paced settings where meeting high service standards and giving great customer experiences were important. I've led front-of-house teams, helped coworkers during busy times, and made sure that daily operations ran smoothly.

Being able to speak English, Italian, and Spanish well has helped me build strong connections with customers and coworkers from a wide range of backgrounds. I am very organised, can work well under pressure, and am dedicated to upholding the best standards of hospitality.

The thing that interests me most about this job is that it's the next step in my career growth. I can't wait to put the management and leadership skills I've gained over the course of my work to use while continuing to grow in a well-known hospitality business.

Thanks for taking my application into consideration. I would genuinely appreciate the chance to talk more about why I'm a perfect fit for the role.

Kind Regards,

Federico Marta
