1. Research	I did a lot of my research on the NHS Careers website on the Neo natal nursing page. I also looked at the NHS Jobs website.
2. Presenting	The presentation did not go well for me I had stage terrible stage fright. My mind went completely blank. I forgot my words and wanted to walk out but I worked through it in the end. My presentation was a minute too short, I think.
3. Challenges you faced	I found researching academic and employability skills in Neo Natal nursing quite difficult using the University online library. I had issues with the key words I searched 'Employability skills and nursing'. As it was showing no results. I really struggle with the computing skills as I did not have a computer when I was last in education 23 years ago. Back then I just used pen, paper, and books and therefor found the online library very confusing, and it gave me anxiety.
4. Actions to improve	On refection I should have rehearsed more for the presentation and had a one on computer skills lesson. I later found out I should have just searched 'Employability skills' on the online university library.
5. Further steps needed to Prepare for Task 3	I am going to get more familiar with using the online library so I can research better.
