TASK DESCRIPTION

Portfolio: Brand development

You are required to act as a marketing manager working on a brand development project. The objective of this portfolio is to construct a marketing strategy for a technology company of your choice, focusing specifically on brand development as a strategy for business growth. As part of this assessment, you are expected to develop a brand extension.

Element 1: Brand Extension Poster Presentation (3 – 5 minute maximum) – Equivalent to 200 words

You are required to present your brand extension using a poster created in Canva or PowerPoint. The poster presentation should last between 3 and 5 minutes. Please note that you do not need to create a full slide presentation; only a poster is required.

The poster presentation should:

- Explain the brand extension, including a brief introduction to the technology company chosen.
- Describe why this brand extension would appeal to the current market, taking into account emerging trends.
- Provide an overview of how the brand extension aligns with sustainability goals.

The brand extension should be persuasive and convincing, designed to appeal to both potential investors and customers.

You will deliver this presentation in class in the weeks mentioned in the first page.

Element 2: Develop a Segmentation, Targeting, Differentiation, and Positioning (STDP) Analysis for the brand extension – Equivalent to 800 words

You should identify and describe the key market segments relevant to the brand extension using geographic, demographic, psychographic, and behavioural variables. Provide a detailed explanation of your chosen target audience. Furthermore, clarify how the brand will differentiate itself from competitors in the market and outline the positioning of the brand extension.

Element 3: Marketing Mix (4Ps or 7Ps) – Equivalent to 1,000 words

In this section, explain how each element of the marketing mix will be applied and how it aligns with and supports the overall brand extension strategy. Each element should be critically discussed and justified using relevant marketing strategies covered in the module. Your discussion should be supported with appropriate academic sources.

Element 4: Reflection – Equivalent to 500 words

Provide a reflection on your experience developing the brand extension. In addition, reflect on your experience preparing and delivering the poster presentation. Analyse the key skills, knowledge, and insights you have gained throughout this process, and evaluate how these have contributed to your personal and professional development. Finally, consider how you could further enhance your approach and performance in similar projects in the future.

Note:

- Portfolio submission: Element 1, 2, 3, and 4: This should be completed in a single MS Word document, including Element 1 (the poster) added in the document. The entire document should be submitted as one file under a single submission link. The mark and feedback for the portfolio will be provided here.

- Poster presentation submission: Element 1: This should be a poster created in Canva or PowerPoint and submitted under a specific link. This submission will be used for the presentation. Its mark and feedback will be found in the portfolio submission.

GUIDANCE FOR STUDENTS IN THE COMPLETION OF TASKS

NOTE: The guidance offered below is linked to the five generic assessment criteria overleaf.

1. Engagement with Literature Skills

Your work must be informed and supported by scholarly material that is relevant to and focused on the task(s) set; you should make use of scholarly reviews and primary sources, as appropriate (for example, refereed research articles and/or original materials appropriate to the discipline). You should provide evidence that you have accessed a wide range of sources, which may be academic, governmental and industrial; these sources may include academic journal articles, textbooks, current news articles, organisational documents, and websites. You should consider the credibility of your sources; academic journals are normally highly credible sources while websites require careful consideration/selection and should be used sparingly. Any sources you use should be current and up-to-date, mostly published within the last five years or so, though seminal/important works in the field may be older. You must provide evidence of your research/own reading throughout your work, using correctly a suitable referencing system, including in-text citations in the main body of your work and a reference list at the end of your work.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- ➔ Engage with a wide level of reading, a minimum of 15 references, from a variety of credible literature sources informed by the latest research. Each element, including the poster, should use a minimum of 3 references and has its own reference list.
- ➔ Tables, charts, diagrams, graphs and images should be properly cited.
- ➔ Your work is expected to be supported by intext citations when necessary.
- ➔ The references should be properly cited in text and listed according to the UWTSD Harvard Referencing Style (Cite them right).

2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills

At level 7, you should be able to demonstrate a systematic understanding of knowledge, and a critical awareness of current problems and/or new insights, much of which is at, or informed by, the forefront of your academic discipline, field of study or area of professional practice, with a comprehensive understanding of techniques applicable to your own research or advanced scholarship. Your work must demonstrate your growing mastery of these concepts, principles, current challenges, innovation and insights associated with the subject area. Knowledge relates to the facts, information and skills you have acquired through your learning. You demonstrate your understanding by interpreting the meaning of the facts and information (knowledge). This means that you need to select and include in your work the contemporary concepts, techniques, models, theories, etc. appropriate to the task(s) set. You should be able to explain the theories, concepts, etc. meaningfully to show your understanding. Your mark/grade will also depend upon the extent to which you demonstrate your knowledge and understanding; ideally each should be complete and detailed, with comprehensive coverage.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the relevant models/concepts of the subject. In particular brand development, STDP, marketing mix strategies should be demonstrated.
- Display awareness of current problems and/or new insights of the subject.

3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills

You should be able to: evaluate critically current research and advanced scholarship in the discipline; evaluate methodologies and develop critiques of them and, where appropriate, to propose new hypotheses; deal with complex issues both systematically and creatively to make sound judgements in the absence of complete data. Your work must contain evidence of logical, analytical thinking, evaluation and synthesis. For example, to examine and break information down into parts, make inferences, compile, compare and contrast information. This means not just describing what! But also justifying: Why? How? When? Who? Where? At what cost? At all times, you must provide justification for your arguments and judgements. Evidence that you have reflected upon the ideas of experts within the subject area is crucial to you providing a reasoned and informed debate within your work. Your choice of methodologies to gather data and information must be rigorously defended. Furthermore, you should provide evidence that you are able to make sound judgements and convincing arguments using data and concepts. Sound, valid, persuasive conclusions are necessary and must be derived from the content of your work. Where relevant, alternative solutions and recommendations may be proposed.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- Demonstrate critical evaluation/analysis of current research and methodologies.
- Provide systematic and creative synthesis of complex issues related to the assessment task/s.
- Investigate contradictory or incomplete information and make arguments and judgements.
- Provide evidence to support your arguments and judgements.
- Critical analysis of the process of segmentation, targeting, and marketing mix strategy/strategies should be included.

4. Practical Skills

At level 7, you should be able to demonstrate originality in the application of knowledge, together with a practical understanding of how established techniques of research and enquiry are used to create and interpret knowledge in the discipline. This includes acting autonomously in planning and implementing tasks at a professional or equivalent level, originality in tackling and solving problems, and decision-making in complex and unpredictable contexts or situations.

You should be able to demonstrate mastery of the leading edge subject-related concepts and ideas as they relate to real world situations and/or particular contexts. How do they work in practice? You will deploy models, methods, techniques, and/or theories, in those contexts or circumstances, to assess current situations, perhaps to formulate plans or plausible, justifiable recommendations to solve problems, or to propose new models, or to create artefacts, which may be innovative and creative, thereby demonstrating your understanding of how the boundaries of knowledge are advanced through research and/or application. This is likely to involve, for instance, the use of real world artefacts, examples and cases, the application of a model within an organisation and/or benchmarking one theory or organisation against others.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- ➔ Properly implement the suitable tools and approaches to address the task/s requirement/s.
- ➔ Detailed, current facts and figures based on both countries should be included in relation to relevant models/theories to support statements made.
- ➔ Focus only on the task/s and question/s set in the assignment.

5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice

Your work must provide evidence of the qualities and transferable skills necessary for postgraduate-level employment in circumstances requiring sound judgement, personal responsibility and initiative in complex and unpredictable professional environments. This includes demonstrating: the independent learning ability for continuing professional development to advance existing skills and acquire new competences of a professional nature that will enable you to assume significant responsibility within organisations; that you can initiate and complete tasks, projects and procedures, whether individually and/or collaboratively, to a professional level; that you can use appropriate media to effectively communicate information, arguments and analysis in a variety of forms for a variety of audiences; fluency of expression; clarity and effectiveness in presentation and organisation. Work should be coherent and well-structured in presentation and organisation.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- ➔ The final portfolio submission should be in the form of a single Microsoft Word file.
- ➔ Structure the work appropriately.
- ➔ Write the work academically, i.e., it should be clear, accurate, concise, objective, formal, and consistent.
- ➔ Use proper spelling and grammar.
- ➔ Present the work professionally, including but not limited to the paragraphs, headings, alignments, line spacing, fonts, tables, illustrations, and images.
- ➔ Apply Arial font style, size 12, 1.5 line spacing, and page numbering.
- ➔ Name and mention the tables, charts, diagrams, graphs and images appropriately.
- ➔ In the title page, include the University's logo, the programme name, the name and code of the module, the title of your submission, the lecturer's name, the name and ID of the student, the word count, and the submission date.
- ➔ Use MS Word to automatically generate the table of contents.

- Follow the word count requirement. The title page, table of contents, reference list, and any appendices will not be included in the final word count of your report.
- If the word count is outside of the required range, please refer to the Word count section below.
- The evidence of this criterion should be found across all the different sections of your work.
- Please ensure that the Personal Information Removal setting is switched off in your Word document before submission.
- The presentation poster should show some creativity and developed in CANVA, Adobe Express Free, MS PowerPoint, or any similar Graphic Design Platforms.

7.7 Work over the word limit

- (i) Different assessments have varying word lengths specified for them; it is important that the student keeps to the word length specified for each assessment at all times on the following grounds → To encourage succinct and clear writing by students.
 - To ensure equity between all the students doing that particular assessment.
- (ii) If the specified word limit for an assessment has been exceeded, the following penalties would normally apply. The penalty cannot take the work into the fail category.
 - Up to 10% above the word limit – No deduction off final mark.
 - Between 10% and 25% above the word limit – Deduction of 5 marks off final mark, or reduce the mark to the capped mark, whichever is the lesser penalty. For example, for an undergraduate student achieving a final mark of 44%, the mark would be reduced to the capped mark of 40%; whereas for an undergraduate student achieving a final mark of 49%, the mark would be reduced to 44%. For a postgraduate student achieving a final mark of 54%, the mark would be reduced to the capped mark of 50%; whereas for a postgraduate student achieving a final mark of 67%, the mark would be reduced to 62%.
 - Between 25% and 50% above the word limit – Deduction of 10 marks off final mark, or reduce the mark to the capped mark, whichever is the lesser penalty. For example, for an undergraduate student achieving a final mark of 47%, the mark would be reduced to the capped mark of 40%; whereas for an undergraduate student achieving a final mark of 55%, the mark would be reduced to 45%. For a taught postgraduate student achieving a final mark of 59%, the mark would be reduced to the capped mark of 50%; whereas for a postgraduate student achieving a final mark of 64%, the mark would be reduced to 54%.
 - 50% or more over length – Maximum mark of capped mark.

(iii) A failure to meet the word limit (or minimum word limit if a range is given) may result in lower marks based on the quality of the work because the work may not include the necessary information required for the assessment to meet the stated learning outcomes.

(iv) The feedback on the assessment should explicitly mention any mark deduction and the reason for it.

STUDENT FEEDBACK FORM

This section details the extent to which the assessment criteria are demonstrated by you, which in turn determines your mark. The marks available for each category of skill are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.
