

- 2 My favourite place is the golf club because it makes me feel excited as I enjoy the sport and forget about any problems I have. The exercise and fresh air is always a great help too. The challenges of trying to improve my score each round keep me motivated and switched on at all times