

Hey Simone, how's it going?
I've enjoyed working together on LHC, now I've got a few ideas for a new song and I was wondering if you'd be down for having a session where we could finish the writing together and then you could take care of the production.
I want to go a bit airy and dreamy with this one as it's very intimate, but overall sound wise I'd like to go full Channel Orange, but we can figure that out together.
