“Our goal is to let you reveal the heart of every destination, where travel no longer feels like movement. Get lost in the discoveries and connection where every day becomes a story you wish to remember.”

“If I would be given a chance to rewrite the dictionary, I would flip through the pages so quick and would replace India with, the land where beauty is redefined in itself, kindness has been touched, warmth has been spread and emotions have been felt” Magith Noohukhan

A large crowd of people is participating in a Holi festival. They are throwing bright yellow and red powders into the air, creating a thick, colorful mist. Many people are wearing traditional Indian attire, including turbans and saris. The scene is festive and energetic, with people of various ages and backgrounds joining in the celebration.

Important Information

We recommend that you read our important information, together with our Booking Conditions before booking your holiday.

Entry requirements

The following information on entry requirements, passports and visas is for British Citizens only. Any visa information covers visa requirements for the duration of your tour in any given country. If you intend to stay longer, you should seek additional information before booking.

Holders of a British Passport, non-British citizens and holders of a passport endorsed in any way should check immigration requirements with the relevant embassy or consulate of the country to be visited, as should clients with dual nationality or renounced citizenship.

It is important to recognise that whilst the information below is correct at the time we go to print, all requirements may change and all clients must check the up-to-date position as given prior to departure with the embassy or consulate of the country(ies) you are travelling through and to.

We also suggest referring to the UK government's Foreign Travel advice website, gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice for advice about travelling abroad including the latest information on safety and security, entry requirements and travel warnings.

Passports

A valid non-British passport is required for all our holidays, valid for a minimum of six months after your return date to the UK. If you are not currently in possession of a valid passport, please make sure you have plenty of time before your holiday to apply for the document.

A full British passport presently takes approximately six to ten weeks to obtain. If you are 16 or over and have not yet arranged a passport, you should apply for one at least 12 weeks before your departure from the UK. The UK Passport Service has to confirm an applicant's identity before issuing their first passport and will ask them to attend an interview in order to do this. Please note, if you need to apply for a visa after you receive your new passport, you will need to factor in additional time for this.

For more information on passport and entry requirements please visit the Government Passport Office website, or see our website for more details.

Visas

This table provides a quick guide for British Citizens, to which countries require a visa. If a visa is required it is highly recommended to obtain a minimum of two blank pages to visa required. If a visa is being purchased locally, we recommend you have the correct amount, in the relevant currency, as change is not always available.

Bhutan	Yes	Included in the tour price
India	Yes	USD $25
Maldives	Yes	EO
Nepal	Yes	USD $30 - $50

For more detailed information along with useful links to the Foreign Office, online applications and The Travel Visa Company please refer to the FAQ section of our website.

Bhutan

You are required to apply for a Tourist Visa to enter Bhutan, however, this is arranged for you by Staysure Journeys and included in the cost of your tour. Your Bhutanese visa will then be endorsed in your passport on arrival at Paro Airport.

India

You are required to obtain an e-Tourist visa (TV) before travelling. You can apply online for your visa within 30 days prior to arrival on the government of India's e-Tourist Visa website evisaonline.gov.in/evisa/tovisa. For our Treasures of Nepal & Bhutan tour you will require a 30-day multiple entry Tourist Visa, currently costing USD $50.00.

Sri Lanka

You are required to obtain a Sri Lanka Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA) online before you travel. You can apply online for your ETA within 30 days of travel on the government of Sri Lanka's official Electronic Travel Authorization website, eta.gov.lk/etad.

Health & vaccinations

Health facilities, hygiene and disease risks vary worldwide and may change at any time. You should take health advice from your GP or local travel clinic about your specific needs as early as possible and ensure that all vaccinations or preventative medicines are taken early enough (which may be a month or more prior to departure) to be fully effective by the date of travel.

In addition to the UK government's own travel advice website, we also recommend visiting the NHS Travel Vaccinations website, www.nhs.uk/visiting-overseas for more information any required vaccinations.

Please note: Tours to Bhutan include high-altitude locations. Guests with concerns should check with their doctor before booking.

Staysure

Staysure Journeys will benefit from a 15% saving on the base premium of annual multi-trip or single trip policies booked through our insurance partner - Staysure. For a no obligation quotation, call Staysure on Freephone 0800 852 105, and quote reference DJS to be eligible for the 15% saving. Alternatively, visit our website staysure.co.uk/insurancesave.

Travel Insurance

You highly recommend that you take out sufficient and appropriate travel insurance. We recommend you do this at the time of booking so that in the event of cancellation, providing it is covered by your policy, your premium (and any applicable excess) is protected. Staysure Journeys work alongside Staysure to offer you a range of comprehensive single trip and annual multi-trip insurance policies.

Medication and pre-existing conditions

If you have any pre-existing medical conditions or walking difficulties, you should inform us at the time of booking. It is your responsibility to ensure that any medication you are carrying is permitted to be taken into the countries you are visiting. We recommend you consult with your GP and relevant embassy before booking or travelling. Always carry medicines in their original labelled packaging and in your hand-luggage along with a copy of your prescription. Whilst we recommend only carrying enough for the duration of your time away, a small spare supply can be useful. Check that the expiry dates of your medicines will be valid for the duration of your visit abroad.

Mobility on tour

Many of our itineraries include sightseeing tours which involve walking for medium to long periods of time and over uneven surfaces. Steps may also feature, either as part of a tour or within your accommodation. For your enjoyment we recommend a reasonable level of fitness and mobility is required for all tours. Due to the limited accessibility to many of the sights and restrictions on included activities, our tours are generally not suitable for wheelchair bound customers or customers with restricted walking abilities.

If you are in any doubt of the suitability of any of our tours, or have reduced mobility in any way, it is essential you discuss this with us before making a booking.

Tour documents

On payment of a deposit, your holiday is confirmed and we will send you your confirmation email. It is important you check this email as soon as you receive it. Check the tour name and departure date is correct, check names exactly match your passport and familiarise yourself with the times of your flights. If anything is incorrect, please call us immediately.

Tour documents, which include electronic air tickets, helpful information and a final itinerary, can be accessed using the Staysure Journeys app, approximately 2-3 weeks prior to your departure. Luggage labels will be sent at the same time.

Weather

Generally, all our tours operate when it is considered the best time to travel however it is important to note that some countries cover different climate zones, so climates may vary throughout your tour. As weather patterns around the world are becoming less predictable the information we provide should be used as a guide only and is not a guarantee of the weather at the time you travel. We also recommend checking up-to-date weather forecasts before you travel.

Bhutan

Bhutan is best visited from February to April and September to November, when you should have pleasant daytime temperatures and clear skies, although the evenings and early mornings may still be cool. Tours to Bhutan include visits to high-altitude locations where more dramatic weather conditions exist and their respective elevation please refer to the FAQs on our website.

India

With a country this size, it is no surprise that India's weather is extremely varied across the different states. Generally, the best time to travel is between October and March, when the weather is more likely to be warm, sunny and dry although you can expect to experience a cooler, less humid climate in locations such as Shimla or Jaipur due to their higher altitude locations.

Maldives

From November through April, the climate is tropical and warm, with average temperatures ranging from 29°C to 34°C. January to April tend to be the driest months. Whilst rain is more likely outside of this period, you can still expect long spells of sunshine.

Nepal

During the main travel seasons of September to November and February to April, the days tend to be mild and sunny with cool mornings and evenings.

Sri Lanka

Sri Lanka has wide variations in climate, although the best time to visit the west and south coasts as well as the Cultural Triangle is between December and April. Whilst showers can occur at any time, you should see lots of warmth and sunshine along the coast. Expect a cooler climate around the high altitude hill stations.

Clothing

Other for our tours is generally relaxed and informal during the day, dressing to suit the weather conditions and the activity you are undertaking. Evening dinners are also informal, with smart casual dress being the norm.

It is likely there will be occasions when walking up to be walking on uneven surfaces so we recommend sturdy and comfortable walking shoes. Wearing layers of clothing means much easier to deal with potentially varied weather conditions - remember it will be cooler at higher altitude - and it's always advisable to carry a waterproof, good raincoat, a light factor sun-screen lotion and a hat for protection from the sun.

Bear in mind some countries you will visit adopt a more conservative standard of dress than we would in the UK. When we visit the UK, we recommend that arms and legs are covered. Women may also wish to take a sari to cover their shoulders and all visitors should wear long trousers or skirts or shorts that cover the knees. Taking off your shoes is also a prerequisite before entering many sacred places.
