

Constantine the Great

- 280s CE - Constantine is born.
- 293 CE - Constantine is sent to the court of Diocletian as his father becomes Ceaser by Maximian.
- 303/304 CE - Diocletian recinds the legal rights of Christians. This marks Romes final major attempt to wipe out the sect.
- 305 CE - Diocletian and Maximian abdicate, they are replaced by Constantinius and Glaerius. After being passed over for Caesar, Constantine leaves court and joins his fathers military campaign in Britain.
- 306 CE - Constantinius dies in Britain and the army declare Constantine as Emperor.
- 307 CE - Maximian designates Constantine Augustus and arranges a marriage between his daughter and Constantine. Maxentius seizes power in Rome .
- 312 CE - Constantine marches on Rome and defeats Maxentius during the battle of Milvian Bridge. During his campaign he say a Christian symbol in the sky.
- 313 CE - Constantine and the Eastern Emperor Lincinius issue the Edict of Milan, which granted full legal rights to Christians.
- 324 CE - Truce between East and West falls apart. Constantine wins at Chrysopolis and Licinius surrenders. Constantine becomes the sole Emporer.
- 325 CE - Constantine covenes the Council of Nicaea, regarding the argument that Jesus is not divine.
- 330 CE - The city of Constantinople is founded, signifying Romes split from its Pagan past due to Constantines claim that is was "Commanded by God".
- 337 CE - Constantine is formally baptised just weeks before he die. The reasoning being that it would was away the sins from his life.

Constantine was also known as;

- Constantine the Great
- Flavius Valerius Constantinius

