

Digital safety

Benefits

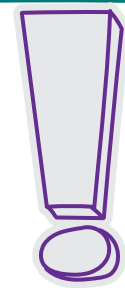

Connect with friends and family even from far away.

Access to information, internet provides information and new method to learn new things

Online platforms give you access to remote teaching

Risks

Nothing is really private. You can't control who will share your post or how they'll use it.

Online abuse includes cyberbullying online predators and financial scam

What you post is part of your life don't post private information.

Tips to keep safe online

Create strong passwords.
Use password that are hard to guess

Be careful of what you download
Don't download content from sites that are not track. These may contain malware

Turn on privacy settings.
Take control of how companies use your data by enabling privacy features

Make online shop from secure site when making a purchase online you are asked to provide your credit card or bank account information, make sure you give this information only to secure sites which start with https

Treat people online with respect like how you treat them in real life.