

MARKING CRITERIA AND STUDENT FEEDBACK

MODULE: Engineering Applications and Study Skills

ASSIGNMENT: Reflective Report

STUDENT: Wesley Patrick

DATE: 28/11/2018

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied		Marks available	Marks awarded
1. Engagement with literature
Extent of reading, referencing, academic conventions and academic honesty.
		0	0
2. Knowledge and understanding of the subject
Extent of knowledge and understanding of concepts and underlying principles associated with the discipline.
		0	0
3. Cognitive and intellectual skills
Evaluate underlying concepts and principles and interpret qualitative and quantitative data to develop lines of argument and make sound judgements
70-84%: Excellent evaluation of the underlying concepts and principles. Can interpret qualitative and quantitative data accurately and with some insight. Excellent ability to devise arguments using evidence and make appropriate and valid judgements. The assignments are well discussed, with your feelings about the coursework and how you engaged with it clearly explained. Even though you have achieved good marks for the courseworks, you have still been able to understand areas in which you have room for improvements.		50	37.5
4. Practical skills
Different approaches to solving problems in particular contexts
50-59%: A good and appropriate application of basic methods, materials, tools and/or techniques. Clear appreciation of the context of the application. Good evidence of different approaches to problem-solving in particular contexts and proposes mostly appropriate solutions. Your strengths and weaknesses are clearly defined within the report. You have established the areas in which you need to improve going forward, though more detail on the techniques or strategies you intend to implement to achieve this could be better explained.		30	17.4
5. Transferable skills for life and professional practice
Attributes in professional practice: individual and collaborative working; deployment of appropriate media; presentation and organisation.
60-69%: Work is accurate, coherent, fluent, well-structured and organised. Demonstrates very good skills for employment requiring the exercise of some personal responsibility, with just occasional minor weakness. Even though this is a reflective report, it should still be set out like a technical report with a title and contents page. You need to proof read your report, however generally this is a good reflective report that meets the assignment brief		20	12.6
