A community-based curriculum

Defnyddio'r gymuned leol fel amgylchedd dysgu sy'n hyrwyddo pedwar diben y cwricwlwm

"Cwricwlwm sy'n seiliedig ar y gymuned

- Nodwyd yn gyson bod ysgolion a oedd yn archwilio'r gymuned leol ac yn ei gosod yn ganolog i'w cwricwlwm yn datblygu ymdeimlad o hunaniaeth yn y disgyblion. Roeddent hefyd yn gwella ymwybyddiaeth o strwythurau cymunedol, ac yn datblygu ymdeimlad o gyfrifoldeb unigol a chorfforaethol dros yr ardal, gan arwain at ymgysylltu dinesig ac ymdeimlad cryf o falchder lleol. Y cwricwlwm yw un o'r dulliau allweddol sy'n fodd i ysgolion hyrwyddo cyfiawnder cymdeithasol, ac mae Coote (2010) yn awgrymu oni bai bod cyfiawnder cymdeithasol yn brif nod gwasanaeth cyhoeddus, yna byddai manteision y 'Gymdeithas Fawr' i ddinasyddion yn gyfyngedig"

Using the local community as a learning environment that promotes the four purposes of the curriculum

"A community-based curriculum

- Schools that explored the local community and placed it at the centre of their curriculum were consistently noted to develop a sense of identity in the pupils. They also improved awareness of community-level structures, and developed a sense of individual and corporate responsibility for the locality, resulting in civic engagement and a strong sense of local pride. The curriculum is one of the key tools by which schools can promote social justice, and Coote (2010) suggests that unless social justice is the main goal of public service, then the benefits of the 'Big Society' to citizens will be limited"

Ystradgynlais My Local Community

Ystradgynlais is a large village in south west Wales. It has a population of approximately 8,500 people. Most people in the village speak English as their first language, but many people speak Welsh, and some people speak other languages, e.g., Arabic, Bengali, Chinese.

The village has a busy centre based around a crossroads known locally as "the Cross". There are lots of shops and cafes. There is a large Tesco a mile outside the village

Ystradgynlais used to be a place in which most men worked as miners in one of the many local pits, but they are all shut. There used to be a big ironworks in the village.
The oldest house in the village is called Ystrad Fawr House and it is said Oliver Cromwell once visited there.

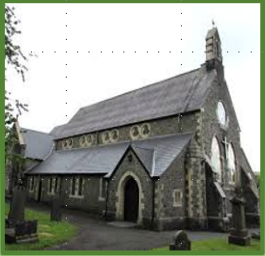
There are a number of community spaces like the library, the church hall and the Miners' Welfare hall.

The River Tawe runs through the village and there are several bridges that cross the river.
Ystradgynlais is at the edge of the Brecon Beacons National Park and there are lots of lovely walks over the hills and mountains.

One of the first things you see as you enter the village is the rugby club, but there are also football clubs, a tennis club, and a bowling club. There is a brass band.

The village is often filled with wonderful floral displays thanks to a group of local volunteers who call themselves "Blodau". There are also some nice parks.

St. Cynog's is the parish church which is close to the Church of the Sacred Heart, a Roman Catholic church. There are also a number of chapels still in use in the village.



This is a painting by a famous artist called Josef Heman who made his home in Ystradgynlais.

There are several primary schools, including a Welsh-medium school, a secondary school and a GPs' surgery.

The nearby Dan yr Ogof Caves complex is a great place to visit. There is also a ape sanctuary 2 miles away.

Ystradgynlais Fy Nghymuned Leol i

Mae Ystradgynlais yn bentref mawr yn ne-orllewin Cymru. Mae ganddo boblogaeth o ryw 8,500 o bobl. Mae'r rhan fwyaf o bobl y pentref yn siarad Saesneg fel iaith gyntaf, ond mae llawer o bobl yn siarad Cymraeg, ac mae rhai yn siarad ieithoedd eraill, e.e. Arabeg, Bengaleg, Tsieinëeg.

Mae gan y pentref ganol prysur sydd wedi'i seilio o gwmpas croesffordd a elwir yn lleol "the Cross". Mae llawer o siopau a chaffis yno. Mae archfarchnad Tesco fawr ryw filltir y tu allan i'r pentref.

Roedd Ystradgynlais yn bentref lle y byddai'r rhan fwyaf o ddynion yn gweithio fel glowyr yn un o'r pyllau glo niferus lleol, ond erbyn hyn, mae pob un o'r pyllau wedi cau. Roedd gwaith haearn mawr yn arfer bod yn y pentref.
Enw'r tŷ hynaf sydd yn y pentref yw 'Ystrad Fawr House' ac yn ôl pob sôn, gwnaeth Oliver Cromwell ymweld ag ef un tro.

Mae nifer o fannau cymunedol yno, fel y llyfrgell, neuadd yr eglwys a Neuadd Les y Glowyr.

Mae afon Tawe yn rhedeg drwy'r pentref ac mae nifer o bontydd yn ei chroesi. Lleolir Ystradgynlais ar drothwy Parc Cenedlaethol Bannau Brycheiniog ac mae llawer o droeon hyfryd yn arwain dros y bryniau a'r mynyddoedd.

Un o'r pethau cyntaf y gwelwch wrth fynd i mewn i'r pentref yw'r clwb rygbi, ond mae hefyd clybiau pêl-droed yno, clwb tennis a chlwb bowlio. Mae gan y pentref hefyd fand pres.

Yn aml, caiff y pentref ei lenwi gan drefniadau blodau gwych, diolch i grŵp o wirfoddolwyr lleol sy'n galw eu hunain "Blodau". Y mae hefyd nifer o barciau hyfryd yno.

Eglwys Sant Cynog yw enw'r eglwys blwyf sydd gerllaw i'r eglwys Gatholig 'Church of the Sacred Heart'. Y mae nifer o gapeli yn y pentref sydd yn parhau i gael eu defnyddio.

Dyma baentiad gan arlunydd enwog o'r enw Josef Herman a wnaeth ymgartrefu yn Ystradgynlais.

Y mae sawl ysgol gynradd yno, gan gynnwys ysgol cyfrwng Cymraeg, ysgol uwchradd a meddygfa.

Mae cymhlethfa ogofau Dan yr Ogof sydd gerllaw yn lle gwych i ymweld ag ef. Y mae hefyd noddfa epaod dwy filltir i ffwrdd.
