Concluding Discussion

ESSAY 1

Choose one example of Ottoman art, architecture or archaeological artefact.

Produce a description of the chosen object or building including details such as materials, dimensions, location (if applicable), date of production. Discuss the significance of the object in relation to either Ottoman architecture, art or archaeology. This should set the chosen example within the wider context of the subject and refer to other appropriate examples. Include suitable images to support the written component of your assignment. In addition to images of the object it is also useful to include a location map to show either the origin of the object or location of the building. Use appropriate sources for your essay these may be either from traditional sources such as articles and books or from websites and other electronic sources which are appropriate (please check before with the module leader before using a particular source).

ESSAY 2

What can archaeology contribute to the study of the Ottoman Past?

This essay involves first defining archaeology as a discipline with specific reference to techniques and methods. Secondly students should show how archaeology can provide a different view of the Ottoman empire than can be derived from written documents alone.

Finally students should consider how archaeology can make future contributions to the study of the history of the Ottoman empire.

(please check with module leader before using particular examples).
