Agency/Employer

Greencore

Description

Rotating shift pattern - 4 on/3 off, 4 on/3 off, 4 on/2 off. (6.30pm - 5.00am)

As Line Coordinator at Greencore your role will be working across three key areas of People, Safety and Operations.

- Be the point of contact for a team of colleagues, meeting and greeting them on arrival and departure and ensuring that they are equipped to succeed.
- Coordinate colleagues so they can rotate across different tasks and give feedback to colleagues on task performance and adherence to operational standards to build their skills and confidence to play a key part of the team.
- Support the development across your team and provide guidance and support where necessary.
- Co-ordinate and cover breaks whilst managing working time and reporting absences to line managers and take a keen interest on the safety and welfare of your team members, making sure prestart safety checks are completed, reporting any near misses, and checking on the welfare of your team.
- Responsibility of a particular area or line in the factory and will ensure production is in line with the agreed plan during your shift, capturing key performance data and checking operational tasks are completed to our high standards.
- Key point of contact for trouble shooting any machinery or material issues and working with your colleagues you'll ensure that quality checks are completed for adherence to food safety, customer, and quality standards.

It's a busy and fast paced role, where each day brings a variety of challenges and rewards, working in a small team you'll be supported by our management teams and colleagues to help make every day taste better.

Why Greencore? You may not have heard of us, but we're sure you've tried our products. We're a vibrant, fast-paced leading food manufacturer. Employing 13,000 colleagues across 16 world-class manufacturing sites and 18 distribution depots across the UK. We supply all the UK's food retailers with everything from Sandwiches, soups and sushi to cooking sauces, pickles and ready meals.

Here at Atherstone, we have a team of around 550 colleagues. We produce sandwiches, wraps, rolls, bircher pots and toasties for some of the biggest retailers in the UK including Starbucks, Aldi, Cafe Nero and the Munch brand sold in WH Smith travel outlets.

What we're looking for

You will be a confident and clear communicator with the ability to engage, influence and motivate others, and enjoy working with people and teams
A commitment to not only self-development but also multi skilling and developing others in your team

A basic understanding and appreciation of health and safety and environmental practices and processes
An understanding of the changing demands and pace of a manufacturing process
Experience having worked to deliver a production plan, meet key performance indicators, and also implement improvements
Confident using data and software systems e.g., data entry and paper traceability records

If this sounds like you, join us and grow with Greencore, and be a part of driving our future success.

What you'll get in return

Competitive salary and job-related benefits

Holidays

Pension up to 8% matched

Company share save scheme

Greencore Qualifications

Exclusive Greencore employee discount platform
Throughout your time at Greencore, you will be supported with on the job training and development opportunities to further your career.

GREENCORE

RE: Enthusiastic and Hardworking

To the Management staff at Greencore Company

I was delighted to see your opening for Team Leadership as an experienced Production Operative. After reviewing your position requirements, I am confident that I would be an excellent addition to the team, utilising my skills and knowledge in managing and leading the team to complete all tasks and roles on a daily basis.

As a Production Operative, I use my keen eye for detail and methodical approach to assist our team in delivering exceptional results. I am skilled at decision-making and communication, and I am frequently praised for my empathy. I enjoy collaborating across all levels to ensure alignment and efficiencies through the effective use of working teams and effective communication. This would make me a good candidate for the position because the company requires employees who are engaged in working to complete all workplace tasks.

I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss how my decision-making skills and experience could benefit the company. I've attached my Curriculum Vitae so you can get a quick overview of the skills and experience I'd be able to bring to the position of team leader in your company. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you agree with my assessment that my expertise would be valuable to many organisations.

I would appreciate the opportunity to speak with you further about how I can contribute to the team's continued growth and success. My curriculum vitae is attached for your review, and I am available for a phone call or interview at your earliest convenience.

Thank you ahead of time.
