THE ART, DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGY SCHOLARSHIP

- The Scholarship is kindly donated by Dr. Dewi Davies and family. The £2000 scholarship is presented for the most promising collection of work by an individual between 18 and 25 years old. The portfolio must be presented through the medium of Welsh or include a Welsh summary.

Guidelines of the Art Design and Technology Scholarship

- Application is open to any Urdd member who complies with the following criteria:
- Born in Wales or whose parents were born in Wales
- Living or working in Wales for 3 years before the current Eisteddfod
- Any person who can speak Welsh or write in Welsh
- The adjudication date for the Scholarship will be the first Saturday in May where all applicants are invited to exhibit their work, participate in a short interview with a panel of expert adjudicators. During the day each applicant will be encouraged to explain their motives with the winner being invited to showcase their work in the Eisteddfod exhibition.

- Bilingual Design
- Create a bilingual poster or leaflet using PDF, Adobe or Publisher promoting an event or occasion. Ensure the Welsh language is more prominent either above or to the left of the English text.

National Eisteddfod Genedlaethol

- 2018 Y Lle Celf

- At Y Lle Celf at the Cardiff National Eisteddfod, a large multi-media exhibition will be held. Online registration opens in January.
- Applications are welcomed across all genres, whether fine art or applied art (including the moving image and performance art).
- Entrants are requested to submit work in the form of high quality Jpeg images accompanied by a short CV and a clear statement concerning the work. Because of the large number of entries most of the works will be selected from these images, therefore it is important to submit clear images of your work and to show items that are available for the exhibition.

National Eisteddfod Genedlaethol

- Young Artist Scholarship
- Scholarship: £1,500
- The scholarship will be awarded to the most promising candidate to enable him/her to pursue a course in a recognised school or college of art and design or attend master classes.
- The scholarship is open to those under 25 years at the time of the Eisteddfod. Short-listed candidates will be expected to prepare a portfolio of work and submit a letter of application describing how the scholarship will be put to use.
- The work submitted may be displayed in Y Lle Celf. The successful candidate may also be offered space at the following Eisteddfod's Lle Celf to display his/her work.

We are welcoming applications from multidisciplinary language, visual or contemporary artists for the artist in residency (AiR) "What We Leave Behind". This is a themed residency programme with participants required to respond to the remote off-grid Welsh island of Bardsey, Ynys Enlli. The residency will provide opportunities to develop connections with artists from Wales, Sweden and United States.

Residency dates:

Friday 11th to Saturday 26th May 2018.
