

Faculty of Education and Communities

The issues you raise via student reps, module feedback and student surveys are used to make decisions at every level of the University. We want to let you know what happens with your ideas and comments and update you on the work we're doing to improve your student experience.

It's Done

- Campus Parking: Update message sent to all students to clarify the parking situation and timetable provision.
- Coffee Shop in TL block: Catering now offer refreshments at peak times.
- The new Psychology Lab in the Dewi Block includes a further 4 computers - double the capacity of the old room.
- Exam timetables: Registry now asks for Programme Director input when drafting the timetable.
- TEL confirmed that there were no measures in place for checking against Welsh Plagiarism. However, following discussions with Welsh medium courses in the Faculty, they reassured me that this has never been an issue.
- The accuracy of the NSS figures which were correct following discussions with Estelle Hart.
- An extra hour per week for each level: for skills and assessment preparation.

We're Working On It

- The accuracy of the NSS figures which were correct, and assured the Committee that the School would be looking to address the issues.
- The psychology team are introducing feedback seminars and feedback folders to help improve engagement.
- An increase in dissertation workshops to twice a week and an additional hour will be given to each year group to concentrate on academic skills.
- The introduction of Office Mix in lectures so increase interactivity during sessions.
- The introduction of Word Wall and Click View to lectures should enhance the learning experience for students.

We Can't Solve This Right Now

There's no space to build additional car parking
