Any questions?

How to become a member

Look out for emails from the CIPD with an invitation for you to join as a Student Member.

Follow the link from your email, join, and pay for your membership. Use the same email address that you've used to register for your qualification!

Check out cipd.org/membership-fees for a breakdown of the fees throughout the year.

Don't forget to ask your employer - they may cover the cost!

Already a member?

If you're already a member, you'll need to look out for an email asking you to confirm which qualification you're studying. We'll do the rest.

Used to be a member?

If you used to be a CIPD member, but aren't any more, call us on +44 (0)20 8612 6208 to re-join.

Ready to build your study plan - and get ready for your first assessment?

Scan the QR code to get started - or go to cipd.org/join
