This shows my X feed settings where I can choose which topics to see or hide using the snooze tool. I keep politics turned on so I can stay updated on current affairs, and snooze other topics to focus on what matters most to me.

This shows my iCloud drive where I created named folders to keep all my files sorted. I have separate folders for University, Finances, and housing documents so I can easily find what I need and keep everything organised.

This shows my Tik-Tok Privacy settings in the inbox section where I choose who sees when I'm active online. I selected "No one" because I value my digital privacy and want to control what information is shared about me.

This shows me sending the University Assignment DS1 Template file through iMessage. I use this tool to share important and educational documents quickly and easily with someone I trust, so we can stay organised with our work.

This shows my snapchat Profile section where I can create different stories and choose exactly who can view each one. I can name stories and set them to private or friends only using the settings tool so I share what I want only with the people I want.
