Social Model of Disability

'The social model of disability proposes that what makes someone disabled is not their medical condition, but the attitudes and structures of society.'

(Foundation for people with learning difficulties, 2020)

Barriers within society:

Lack of understanding

Poor Accessibility

(123RF, 2020)

Discrimination

Ignorance

Poverty

Inaccessible transport

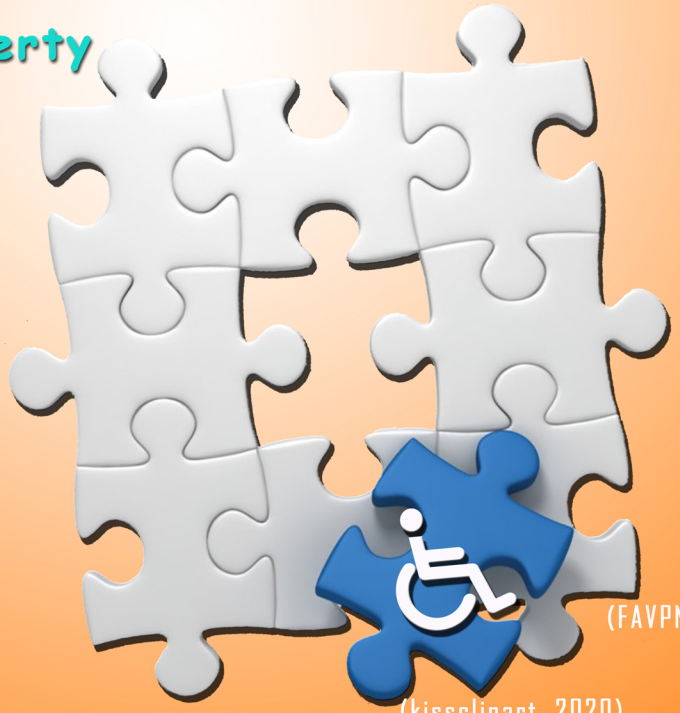

Predjudice

(shutterstock, 2020)
(clipartmax, 2019)

'Being disabled should not mean being disqualified from having access to every aspect of life.'

- Emma Thompson

(FAVPNG, 2020)

(kissclipart, 2020)

Removing barriers:

- Raise awareness & improve understanding
- Make adaptations and improve accessibility
- Create equal opportunities
- Promote awareness & empathy
- Positive outlook & support
- Enhance environment