

Affordance of a warning message appears if a user enters a specific information wrong or if something has been missed out. For example, if the user signs up for the application, they could enter the wrong email address.

The Virtual Street is also clear to use as it requires the human touch as they would need to navigate on where they would need to go.

✓
4/30