Why would I like to become a social worker?

- We are living challenging times, where young adults, children need support more than ever. Social workers are working around the clock to ensure they provide the necessary support which I admire very much. I am lucky enough to experience what it is like to grow up with a loving and caring family however, I understand that there are children I may communities who have grown up within disruptive home.
- I want to be able to support as may children when I become a social worker. Studying social work on a degree level will develop my understanding further as well as have a positive impact on their lives.
