

Prompt: Think about parents and carers gathered on a busy school yard seeing this flyer on the notice board or it being Tweeted. What will make them stop, look and choose to send their child to it?

Component 2 – Flyer

Produce a flyer advertising an outdoor learning experience for a group of your choice.

Include: A brief outline of the experience, age group targeted, number of learners that can take part, adult: child ratio, resources (what they'll use and what they need to bring), activities, type of environment: woodland, beach, field, local park, outdoor classroom, garden.

Do the activities you're advertising link to a particular theorist or approach, .e.g. Piaget's 'little scientists', Bruner's ideas, Froebel, Vygotsky, ideas from Scandinavia, Te Whariki, Montessori, Steiner, etc. (A selling point you might want to advertise)

Could it link to specific areas of the curriculum? Themes?

Make sure that is the flyer/leaflet is presented in a manner that can be understood by a non-specialist audience.

Duke of Edinburgh's Award

Exciting activities for people aged 13-18
with disabilities

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award (DofE) is a worldwide recognised qualification for young people which enables you to gain new skills, push yourself physically, help others and explore new territories. A DofE can also help you stand out from the crowd when you apply for college, university or jobs. At the same time, you'll gather friendships, experiences and memories that will last a lifetime.

The Duke of Edinburgh award focusses on 4 key elements. Young people will be given the opportunity to work towards each element within the safety of the Sovereign centre or can access activities outside the centre if more suitable.

The components that make up the Duke of Edinburgh are:-

- ▶ Volunteering
- ▶ Physical activity
- ▶ Skills
- ▶ Expedition

RECOVERY THROUGH NATURE

PHOENIX FUTURES HAS BEEN DELIVERING THE
JOHN MUIR AWARD
AS PART OF RECOVERY THROUGH NATURE
SINCE 2006
THE AWARD GIVES SERVICE USERS
A GOAL TO WORK TOWARDS AND RECOGNITION OF THEIR ACHIEVEMENTS

COMMEMORATE AND CELEBRATE

Service users volunteer at the John Muir Trust property Glenlude in the Scottish Borders to create a Scottish Phoenix Forest. Native trees are planted to commemorate and celebrate the recovery journey of everyone who has completed their programme with Phoenix Futures. "Conservation work is a great leveller" says Paul, a service user, "and that is what makes it such good therapy."

The first tree of the forest was planted by Lesley who has completed the John Muir Award and is beginning an apprenticeship with the Forestry Commission.

"I've learned lots of new skills and I'm more confident and happier all round than ever before."

Lesley, Glasgow

"Outdoor experiences changing people's lives is a bit of a cliché. But with Lesley it's true. Doing the John Muir Award has helped Lesley find her interest, and she says it helped her gain the placement too."
Marion Logan, Phoenix Futures, Director of Operations

FAMILY FOREST SCHOOL

Youth Sessions

These sessions are a great opportunity for you and your older children to learn some new skills together and enjoy quality time in our bespoke private woodland.

There will be opportunities to build and manage fire, use tools and equipment such as Kelly Kettles, bowsaws and billhooks and, of course, make and eat s'mores around our campfire!

Sessions are led by qualified Forest School practitioners, Julian & Claire and will be at 1pm to 3pm.

Numbers are limited to allow Claire and Julian to provide appropriate support, particularly when tools are being used.

Children require an adult to accompany them - and join in the fun!

Drinks (please each bring a cup with you)

- £9 per child (Ages 11+)
- £9 per adult
- Booking is essential.
- Check our website for availability.

JOHN
MUIR AWARD

wild places:
DISCOVER
EXPLORE

SHARE

Use the John Muir Award
to connect with, enjoy,
and care for wild places

"When we contemplate
the whole Globe as one great dewdrop...the whole Universe appears as an infinite storm of beauty."
John Muir

HOW TO ACHIEVE A JOHN MUIR AWARD

Participate in a range of activities in wild places that meet the following four Challenges...You tell us where and what you'll do.

DISCOVER A WILD PLACE

Identify a suitable venue(s). This can be your school grounds, local park, beach, woods, river, mountain or national park.

EXPLORE IT

Do things to increase awareness and understanding. Experience, enjoy and find out more about your wild place(s).

CONSERVE IT

Take some practical action and personal responsibility.

SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCES

Let others know what you've been up to,
what you've achieved, what you've learned.

THE JOHN MUIR AWARD IN ACTION

"This has engaged the pupils in ways impossible to achieve if you spend the entire year sat behind a desk."

Primary School Teacher, Hartlepool

"It's great. We're using it because we like the simple structure. Having fun through shared family experiences has even more purpose."

Dan Raven-Ellison, National Geographic Emerging Explorer

"Meeting new people, getting outdoors, learning new things, exploring new places, gaining an Award - this is brilliant, as it gives a purpose to get up and out."

Adult Participant,
Mental Health Programme

"The John Muir Award has instilled in me an interest and a curiosity about nature I do not think I have ever felt before."

Academy Pupil, Aberdeen

Must be 8 years old or over

What will my child need?

Children will change into their Forest School kit at school just as they would for PE. Children must be protected from the extremes of weather - many layers of all clothing is better than one thick item of clothing. Please follow the kit list below. Arms and legs must be covered at all times.

Essential Warm base

Layers (i.e. vest, long sleeved top, jumper, jogging bottoms. Coat/ fleece & or Waterproof coat. Thick socks or two pairs of medium thickness. Wellies or sturdy walking boots which keep their feet dry. Highly Desirable Waterproof trousers Hat and Gloves

What are our aims?

Through the Forest School ethos we aim to provide children with opportunities to take measured risks, learn more about themselves and their relationships with others. Under the guidance of a fully qualified Forest School Leader we aim for all children to experience nature in a natural, safe, secure and supported environment. We aim to use this approach with our children for them to be independent, self-motivated, courageous, and considerate setting them up for life-long learning. Under the guidance of a Level 3 Forest School

Forest School

We are pleased to announce Daubeney and Lauriston will run weekly Forest school sessions from September.

Autumn Term
Year 2
Spring Term
Year 1
Summer Term
Reception

Forest School is a holistic approach and provides opportunities for children to develop their communication and social skills, they will also develop physically, intellectually and emotionally through connections they make with nature and the forest environment.

How do we keep the children safe?

The Forest School Leader is fully qualified to run sessions and at least two members of staff will be first aid qualified. The site has been carefully assessed and the children will be trained on how to keep safe. Forest School will also have a higher number of adults than in classroom to ensure children are safe and have the best possible experience.

"Tell me and I forget, teach me and I may remember, involve me and I learn."

- Benjamin Franklin

Where do they go?

The children will go to our own private site at Fungus Meadow. The site is a 15 minute walk from the school. It is a special place for the children to explore.

When do they go?

Year 1 children be will going in the first half of the summer term and Year 2 children will be going after the May half term. You will receive a letter explaining when your child will go and a consent form

What can I do?

Make sure your child is wearing appropriate clothing. Talk to your child about what they have done. Look at the school website with your child to look at the photos.

Please speak to Miss Jones the Forest School Leader if you have any questions or would like more information.
