

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
There is limited evidence of research and although you identified two of the the main issues that came from the scenario such as the wifi access and disgruntled employees who may have lost their jobs and suggested methods that may be implemented to safeguard the network. You have referenced the sources that you used, but failed to include the dates that you accessed the the sources	15	4
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
You have identified potential threats and discussed how these threats relate to the scenario. Your explanation of the threats are a little weak since you failed to relate this to the threats that you identified in the scenario.	15	5
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
You have identified and exposed the main weaknesses in Batman Textiles network and identified possible protective measures. You have failed to expand on any of these points such as the use of encryption, the advantages of placing the wifi devices on a separate network, or the creation of user groups to limit access to the network. You have also failed to complete the guideline for “Batman Textiles” staff members, and customers to responsibly use their digital space.	20	7
4. Practical Application Skills
You have provided evidence of completing the packet tracer exercise and also provided evidence of creating a physical and logical topology diagram. Your diagram provides evidence that the wireless devices are on a separate network and a different ip address range than the desktop pcs, using DHCP from the router but again you have not explained the significance of these decisions .	40	25
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
You have provided a report that is presented in the correct format and falls within the plagiarism guidance but the report lacks sufficient detail and there are a number of areas that are not addressed.	10	4
