

SHROPSHIRE SCRIBES IN PARTNERSHIP WITH HEREFORD CATHEDRAL CHAINED LIBRARY

An exhibition of Shropshire Scribes calligraphy alongside the medieval manuscripts which inspired it.

Hereford Cathedral, Mappa Mundi and Chained Library rooms 17 May to 17 July 2021

Open Monday to Saturday 10.00am to 5.00pm
Admission charges as for Mappa Mundi exhibition

Exhibition Catalogue:

Online catalogue available at the start of the exhibition on following websites

Hereford Cathedral www.herefordcathedral.org

Shropshire Scribes <https://shropshirescribes.weebly.com/>

The catalogue contains images of the manuscripts which inspired the exhibition together with photographs and descriptions of the exhibits

Accompanying Hereford Gospels material:

The Hereford Gospels – A Calligrapher's Viewpoint - By: Peter Furniss

56 Page, A4 book providing a study of the history, construction and text of the Gospel-book together with a detailed analysis of the script used by its creator, contains 15 colour and many B/W images.

Available for sale in the Cathedral Shop

Available by post – £8 Inc p&p. contact 01743 355384 or email peter@furniss.info

Exhibition Calligraphy Workshop:

The Hereford Gospels Script - Tutor: Peter Furniss

Workshop suitable for all levels, will introduce calligraphic techniques and the script used in the Gospel-book. Workshop fee £10 with option to purchase equipment

Saturday 3 July 2021, 10.00am to 3.00pm – Details and booking by email or phone: email library@herefordcathedral.org or phone 01432 374225

