

AV Script

|                        |                    |                    |              |
|------------------------|--------------------|--------------------|--------------|
| CLIENT:         | N/A                | DATE:       | 29/5/19      |
| TITLE:          | Student Expedition | WRITTEN BY: | Cayo Hemming |
| SCRIPT VERSION: | 1                  | TRT:        | N/A          |

| VIDEO                                                                                                                                                                                                  | AUDIO                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------|
| Describe visuals here.                                                                                                                                                                                        | Describe audio and SFX here.                               |
| Starting with a wide shot of the outside of the TL building with students walking in, followed by them in the kit store picking up kit.                                                                       | Ambient sound of the room under a royalty free song.       |
| POV Shot of getting on the bus, a wide shot looking down the middle of the bus seeing students get on. Speed ramps from fast to slow of scenery out of window.                                                | Same music with some whoosh sound effects for transitions. |
| Wide shot of Manorbier hostel, showing the rooms and students playing table tennis .                                                                                                                          | Music, Ping Pong ball SFX                                  |
| Time-lapse of the sky turning from day to night followed by students working on their astrophotography.                                                                                                       | Music                                                      |
| The next day shots of students waiting for the bus. A montage of the bus journey similar to the previous journey. Arriving at the boat, shots of students putting life jackets on and climbing onto the boat. | Music, Swoosh SFX for transitions                          |
| Montage of the boat journey to the island, shots of students sitting down, shots of the water over the side of the boat and finally students walking off the front on the boat.                               | Music, Wave SFX                                            |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                          |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Wide shot of the sky and birds flying overhead.                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Bird SFX                                                                                                                                 |
| Shots of puffins walking around, going in and out of shot. Followed by shots of Guillemots and the students filming these.                                                                                                                       | Original sound recorded from the camera of the puffins and island.Overlayered with some audio of a student showing another his shot. |
| Mid shots of students carrying a tripod over his shoulder walking towards the camera. Shot of different students filming the wildlife. Shot of student walking in and out of frame and another pulling focus from a flower to a student filming. | MusicAmbient sound of the wildlife                                                                                                   |
| Close up of students packing up their equipment, followed by wide shots of everyone walking back towards the boat and getting on.                                                                                                                | Music                                                                                                                                    |
| Another quicker montage of the boat travelling back to shore, wide shot from the back of the boat facing towards land.                                                                                                                           | MusicWave SFX                                                                                                                        |
| Wide shot from inside the bus as everyone piles in, closer shots of smiling faces and students sitting next to each other showing their shots.                                                                                                   | MusicCutting to original audio of laughing                                                                                           |
| Shot of bus door opening and students getting off.                                                                                                                                                                                               | Bus door opening soundMusic                                                                                                          |