LEVEL 6

Semester 2: 2026

Module Code	BMBM6023 / BMBM6023D
Title	Leading and Developing People
Date	07/08/2023
Level	6
Credits	20
Pre-Requisites	None

AIM(S)

- To develop students' knowledge and systematic understanding of the leadership and development of people and organisations in relation to business sustainability and the achievement of competitive advantage.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- recognise and evaluate the complexities involved in leading people in organisations and the practical application of leadership theory and principles;
- critically evaluate the design, and implementation of strategies which are focused on enhancing the effectiveness of people, as both employees and leaders, in order to meet current and future organisational needs.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Models and frameworks of leadership: such as traits, styles, situational, transformational and authentic and their appropriateness in addressing the leadership challenges of the future.
- Approaches to identifying individual and organisational development needs referring to contemporary debates and research.
- Methods used to develop leaders in organisations.
- The role of leadership and development in enhancing organisational success.
- Developing skills for leadership best practice.
- Contemporary leadership and development issues: such as diversity, generational workforce and robotics.
- The link between motivation, engagement, commitment and the effective leadership and development of people.
- The contribution of the Human Resources function in relation to leadership and people development in organisations.

Study Time Allocation

The study time for the module is divided as follows:

LEVEL 6 ASSESSMENT SPECIFICATION

Student name:		Student ID number:
Programme:	BA (Hons) Business Management
Module:	Leading and Developing People
Module code:	BMBM6023	Contribution to Overall Module Assessment (%):	50%
Lecturer:	Julie Thomas	Internal Verifier:	Robyn Griffiths
Assignment Title:	Call Centre in a crisis – the role of wellbeing strategies in supporting people	Word count (or equivalent):	2000 words
Submission deadline:	1st May 2026	Return date of provisional marks & written feedback:	1st June 2026
Submission method:	All written assessments, where practical and possible, must be submitted via Turnitin unless otherwise instructed by the Lecturer. (Please DO NOT put this assessment specification into Turnitin or it will match many similarities with other students' submissions.) Alternative submission method (if applicable): Late submission of the assessment will result in a late penalty mark: Work which is submitted up to 1 week late will be capped at 40% for the first attempt and will be awarded a mark of 0% for re-assessment. Late submission penalties may be lifted only if there is an approved extenuating circumstances claim. Work submitted more than 1 week late will be considered as a non-submission and will not be marked. The work may be considered as a submission for reassessment if offered by an Examining Board or if there is an approved extenuating circumstances claim.
Academic honesty / referencing:	Academic honesty is required. In the main body of your submission you must give credit to authors on whose research and ideas your work is based. Append to your submission a reference list that indicates the books, articles, etc. that you have used, cited or quoted in order to complete this assessment.

Module Learning Outcomes (from module syllabus)

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- recognise and evaluate the complexities involved in leading people in organisations and the practical application of leadership theory and principles.
- critically evaluate the design, and implementation of strategies which are focused on enhancing the effectiveness of people, as both employees and leaders, in order to meet current and future organisational needs.

TASK DESCRIPTION

Use of Generative AI in Assessment

(Lecturer to indicate Yes or No against each element)

RESEARCH	For this assessment, you can use Generative AI to support you in research and data analysis.	Yes ☐ No ☒
STRUCTURE	For this assessment, you can use Generative AI to support you in structuring your submission, including creating a draft argument structure, identifying parts and headings, etc.	Yes ☐ No ☒
PROOFREADING	For this assessment, you can use Generative AI to check your own text/creation for grammatical and syntactical mistakes, including getting suggestions to rephrase your work.	Yes ☐ No ☒
WRITING	For this assessment, you can use Generative AI to create text for submission.	Yes ☐ No ☒
CREATIVE	For this assessment, you can use Generative AI to create creative materials, such as images.	Yes ☐ No ☒
PROGRAMMING	For this assessment, you can use Generative AI to create and check code.	Yes ☐ No ☒
NONE	For this assessment, you are not allowed to use any type of Generative AI support. This includes research support, structure support, writing/proofreading support and creative support.	☒

You are also expected to abide by all student policies, including those relating to academic misconduct. At the beginning of your assignment, you must therefore state the following:

- I confirm that this is entirely my own work and no one else has assisted me or written the assignment for me.
- I confirm that I have not presented any AI generated written materials as my own work.
- I confirm that I have copies of my drafts, notes, and other resources I used, which I may be asked to provide in evidence.

Task:

You are required to write a 2000 word essay based on the following scenario:

1. You are a HR Officer at 'Havencares Insurance' which specialises in insurance claims and has two call centres in South Wales – one in Swansea and one in Cardiff. Due to your success in dealing with a number of people management issues at the call centre in Swansea, you have been asked to relocate to the call centre in Cardiff, to help the management team with several issues at this site.

These issues include:

- high turnover
- high absence due to mental health and colds/flu
- poor performance and long-term illness amongst longer serving employees.

The Cardiff call centre has 300 employees, most of whom are claims handlers, with a small number of team leaders and senior managers.

2. Write a 2000 word essay explaining how a wellbeing strategy may help overcome the issues at the Cardiff call centre. Critically examine the link between wellbeing and performance and pay particular attention to how employee development can have a positive impact on overall wellbeing.
3. You must refer to relevant characteristics of the organisation in your answer, including the call centre environment and its location in South Wales.

GUIDANCE FOR STUDENTS IN THE COMPLETION OF TASKS

NOTE: The guidance offered below is linked to the five generic assessment criteria overleaf.

1. Engagement with Literature Skills

Your work must be informed and supported by scholarly material that is relevant to and focused on the task(s) set; you should make use of scholarly reviews and primary sources, where appropriate (for example, refereed research articles and/or original materials appropriate to the discipline). You should provide evidence that you have accessed a wide range of sources, which may be academic, governmental and industrial; these sources may include academic journal articles, textbooks, current news articles, organisational documents, and websites. You should consider the credibility of your sources; academic journals are normally highly credible sources while websites require careful consideration/selection and should be used sparingly. Any sources you use should be current and up-to-date, mostly published within the last five years or so, though seminal/important works in the field may be older. You must provide evidence of your research/own reading throughout your work, using a suitable referencing system, including in-text citations in the main body of your work and a reference list at the end of your work.

Guidance specific to this assessment: Journal article publication dates should be as current as possible and no older than the last five years. You should aim for a minimum of 20 references from relevant and credible sources.

2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills

At level 6, you should be able to demonstrate coherent and detailed knowledge and a systematic understanding of the subject area, at least some of which is informed by the latest research and/or advanced scholarship within the discipline. You should be aware of the uncertainty, ambiguity and limits of knowledge. Your work must demonstrate the growing extent of your knowledge and systematic understanding of concepts and underlying principles associated with the subject area. Knowledge relates to the facts, information and skills you have acquired through your learning. You demonstrate your understanding by interpreting the meaning of the facts and information (knowledge). This means that you need to select and include in your work the concepts, techniques, models, theories, etc. appropriate to the task(s) set. You should be able to explain the theories, concepts, etc. meaningfully to show your understanding. Your mark/grade will also depend upon the extent to which you demonstrate your knowledge and understanding; ideally each should be complete and detailed, with comprehensive coverage.

Guidance specific to this assessment: You should demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the link between wellbeing and performance and the complex environment within which wellbeing strategies are deployed. Reference to relevant people leadership and management theory.

3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills

You should be able to: critically evaluate evidence, arguments, assumptions, abstract concepts and data some of which are at the forefront of a discipline (and that may be incomplete) to devise and sustain arguments, to make judgements and/or solve problems; describe and comment upon particular aspects of current research, or equivalent advanced scholarship, in the discipline. Your work must contain evidence of logical, analytical thinking, evaluation and synthesis. For example, to examine and break information down into parts, make inferences, compile, compare and contrast information. This means not just describing what! But also justifying: Why? How? When? Who? Where? At what cost? At all times, you must provide justification for your arguments and judgements. Evidence that you have reflected upon the ideas of others within the subject area is crucial to you providing a reasoned and informed debate within your work. Furthermore, you should provide evidence that you are able to make sound judgements and convincing arguments using data and concepts. Sound, valid conclusions are necessary and must be derived from the content of your work. Where relevant, alternative solutions and recommendations may be proposed.

Guidance specific to this assessment: You should address all areas of the brief and tailor your points to the case study organisation. Your arguments should be underpinned with credible sources. There should be a logical flow and your conclusion should effectively summarise your main points.

4. Practical Skills

At level 6, you should be able to apply the methods and techniques that you have learned to review, consolidate, extend and apply your knowledge and understanding, and to initiate and carry out projects. You will deploy accurately established techniques of analysis and enquiry relevant to the discipline, and apply them in complex and unpredictable contexts, to devise and sustain arguments and/or to solve problems. You should be able to frame appropriate questions to achieve a solution - or identify a range of solutions. You should be able to demonstrate how the subject-related concepts and ideas relate to real world situations and/or a particular context. How do they work in practice? You will deploy models, methods, techniques, and/or theories, in that context or circumstances, to assess current situations, perhaps to formulate plans or solutions to solve problems, or to create artefacts, some of which may be innovative and creative. This is likely to involve, for instance, the use of real world artefacts, examples and cases, the application of a model within an organisation and/or benchmarking one theory or organisation against others based on stated criteria. You should show awareness of the limitations of concepts and theories when applied in particular contexts.

Guidance specific to this assessment: Specific reference should be made to the case study organisation and the call centre environment. Solutions should be practical and realistic given the context.

5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice

Your work must provide evidence of the qualities and transferable skills necessary for graduate-level employment requiring the exercise of initiative and personal responsibility and decision-making in complex and unpredictable circumstances. This includes demonstrating: the learning ability for professional development to advance existing skills and acquire new competences of a professional nature that will enable you to assume significant responsibility within organisations; that you can initiate and complete tasks and procedures, whether individually and/or collaboratively; that you can use appropriate media to effectively communicate information, arguments and analysis in a variety of forms to specialist and non-specialist audiences; fluency of expression; clarity and effectiveness in presentation and organisation. Work should be coherent and well-structured in presentation and organisation.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

An essay of 2000 words

The assignment should also be:

- Written in English in an appropriate business/academic style using Microsoft Word (no pdfs)
- Focus only on the tasks set in the assignment.
- Length: 2,000 words +/- 10%
- Times New Roman or Arial font 12 with at least 2.5 spacing and pages numbered.
- In essay format, with a clear title, course, and name or ID number on a cover sheet and including a reference list using Harvard referencing throughout.
- You should use your student log in when accessing Word so that the author and modifier information on the Word document is clear.

STUDENT FEEDBACK FORM

This section details the extent to which the assessment criteria are demonstrated by you, which in turn determines your mark. The marks available for each category of skill are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

NONE	For this assessment, you are not allowed to use any type of Generative AI support. This includes research support, structure support, writing/proofreading support and creative support.	☐

You are only permitted to use generative AI for creative materials such as images for this task.

You are expected to abide by all student policies, including those relating to academic misconduct. At the beginning of your assignment, you must therefore state the following:

- I confirm that this is entirely my own work and no one else has assisted me or written the assignment for me.
- I confirm that I have not presented any AI generated written materials as my own work.
- I confirm that I have copies of my drafts, notes, and other resources I used, which I may be asked to provide in evidence.

Task:

1. You currently work as a HR Officer for Havencares Insurance in South Wales. The opportunity has arisen for you to apply for the permanent post of HR manager in the organisation. As this post is part of the senior leadership team, you have been asked to deliver a presentation in which you:
 - a. critically analyse the leadership style that you possess
 - b. explain why your style is best suited to address the current internal and external challenges facing the organisation
 - c. explain how the organisation should support your development in the role, given that this is your first senior appointment.

You must refer to leadership questionnaires and feedback from people you know regarding your leadership style and must also include specific detail regarding the future challenges that the organisation will face.

2. No more than one record card of notes will be allowed. You must practise your presentation sufficiently so that you do not require copious notes and must not read out your entire presentation.
3. You should regularly refer to literature, to support your points and your slides must contain intext citations (the reference list should be placed on the final slide/at the end of your presentation).
4. You may use any presentation format you would like – for example, Powerpoint, Canva.
5. The presentation must not exceed 10 minutes, with 5 minutes for questions from the lecturer. Questions will include how you researched and constructed your presentation, as well as your arguments.
6. Presentations will take place on 21st April 2026 in class.
7. You must upload a document that contains your presentation to Turnitin by 23:59 on 17th April 2026. If you use Powerpoint, you should upload the Powerpoint slides and if you use a website or other non-standard format, you should upload any written content and your reference list in a Word document which also contains a link to your presentation.

You should show awareness of the limitations of concepts and theories when applied in particular contexts.

Guidance specific to this assessment: You should demonstrate a strong appreciation of the context (call centre) and current leadership challenges the industry is facing. You should use leadership styles questionnaires to effectively assess your leadership style.

5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice

Your work must provide evidence of the qualities and transferable skills necessary for graduate-level employment requiring the exercise of initiative and personal responsibility and decision-making in complex and unpredictable circumstances. This includes demonstrating: the learning ability for professional development to advance existing skills and acquire new competences of a professional nature that will enable you to assume significant responsibility within organisations; that you can initiate and complete tasks and procedures, whether individually and/or collaboratively; that you can use appropriate media to effectively communicate information, arguments and analysis in a variety of forms to specialist and non-specialist audiences; fluency of expression; clarity and effectiveness in presentation and organisation. Work should be coherent and well-structured in presentation and organisation.

Guidance specific to this assessment:

- 10 minute individual presentation with 5 minutes for questions from the lecturer.
- Use UWTSD Harvard Referencing style for citations and references.
- Include at least 10 scholarly sources to support your analysis and recommendations.
- The presentation should be visually appealing and appropriate for the audience (a selection panel).

GENERIC ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Level 6

In accordance with the Framework for Higher Education Qualifications, at the end of Level 6 students should have coherent and detailed knowledge and a systematic understanding of their subject area, at least some of which is informed by the latest research and/or advanced scholarship within the discipline. They will be able to accurately deploy established techniques of analysis and enquiry within a discipline, using their conceptual understanding to devise and sustain arguments and/or to solve problems. They should be aware of the uncertainty, ambiguity and limits of knowledge. They should be able to critically evaluate evidence, arguments, assumptions, abstract concepts and data (that may be incomplete), to make judgements, and to frame appropriate questions to achieve a solution - or identify a range of solutions. They will apply the methods and techniques that they have learned to review, consolidate, extend and apply their knowledge and understanding, and to initiate and carry out projects. They will have the ability to manage their own learning, and to make use of scholarly reviews and primary sources (for example, refereed research articles and/or original materials appropriate to the discipline). They will demonstrate the qualities and transferable skills necessary for employment requiring: the exercise of initiative and personal responsibility; decision-making in complex and unpredictable contexts; the learning ability needed to undertake appropriate further training of a professional or equivalent nature.

Some evidence to support emerging arguments and judgements but these may be underdeveloped or with a little inconsistency / mis-interpretation. Asserts rather than argues a case.	Some critical thinking, analysis, synthesis and evaluation. Can analyse new and/or abstract concepts and data without guidance. An emerging awareness of different stances and ability to use evidence (that may be incomplete) to support the argument. Mostly valid arguments and logical judgements. Some tendency to assert/state opinion rather than argue on	Sound critical thinking, analysis, synthesis and evaluation demonstrating critical thinking. Ability to devise and sustain persuasive arguments, and to review the reliability, validity and significance of evidence (that may be incomplete) to make mostly appropriate and valid judgements.	Excellent critical thinking, analysis, synthesis and evaluation. Ability to investigate contradictory or incomplete information and make strong, persuasive, arguments and sophisticated judgements. Some evidence of independent thought and ability to 'see beyond the question', suggesting a grasp of the broader field and wider concepts.	Exceptional critical thinking, analysis, synthesis and evaluation based on judiciously selected evidence. Ability to investigate contradictory or incomplete information and make strong, persuasive, arguments and sophisticated, nuanced, judgements. Evidence of independent thought and ability to 'see beyond the question', suggesting an outstanding

Practical skills (Apply/deploy accurately established tools and techniques; initiate and carry out projects; formulate solutions to solve problems in complex and unpredictable contexts.)	Limited or no use of methods, materials, tools and/or techniques. Little or no appreciation of the context of the application. Limited understanding of the application of theory to practice or making appropriate links between the two. Very weak problem-solving skills in complex and unpredictable contexts.	Rudimentary application of methods, materials, tools and/or techniques but without consideration and competence. Flawed appreciation of the context of the application. Weak understanding of the application of theory to practice, with only occasional evidence of making appropriate links between the two. Weak problem-solving skills in complex and unpredictable contexts.	An adequate awareness and mostly appropriate application of well-established methods, materials, tools and/or techniques. Basic appreciation of the context of the application. Theoretical knowledge and understanding applied in practice, but not always making logical links between the two. Can identify problems and propose basic solutions in complex and unpredictable contexts without fully appreciating the complexity.	A good and appropriate application of standard methods, materials, tools and/or techniques. Clear appreciation of the context of the application. Mainly consistent, accurate and logical application of theory to practice, making appropriate links between the two. Can identify problems and propose mostly appropriate solutions in complex and unpredictable contexts.	A very good application of a range of methods, materials, tools and/or techniques. Very good consideration of the context of the application, with perceptive insights. Can identify problems and propose appropriate solutions in complex and unpredictable contexts. Evidence of some innovation and creativity.	An advanced application of a range of methods, materials, tools and/or techniques. The context of the application is well considered, and insightful. Application and deployment extend beyond established conventions. Can identify complex problems and propose excellent solutions. Innovation and creativity evident.	Exceptional levels of application and deployment skills in unpredictable, practical contexts, drawing skilfully on the latest research within the discipline. Can identify complex problems and propose sophisticated solutions. Assimilation and development of cutting edge processes and techniques.
