

9am	Registration and coffee
9.40	Welcome	Dr Nicky Hayes, BPS President
9.45	The last taboo? Biopsychosocial aspects of women's reproductive health	Dr Deborah Lancaster, Associate Professor of Psychology, University of South Wales
10.30	Parallel Sessions 1 Development isn't a linear process: Developing circles of support as educational psychologists Abigail Wright Neath Port Talbot Council Exploring the impact of being a Youth Ambassador for Huntington's Disease: an interpretative phenomenological analysis Carly Evans University of Wales Trinity Saint David Xplore! Science Discovery Centre: A qualitative exploration of parental experiences of informal science Fern Mitchell Wrexham Glyndŵr University	Parallel Session 2 Playing predictably: Ensemble- musicians demonstrate larger N400 effects than non-musicians Anne-Lise Rhodes Aberystwyth University What is the state of play? Exploring attitudes towards women's rugby in Wales Sarah Hawkins University of Wales Trinity Saint David Let's not overreact: The delicate balance between interoception and mindfulness on emotional eating Catrin Lloyd Brown Swansea University
11.30-11.45	Coffee Break
11.45 – 12.15	The social psychological implications of pandemic precautions.	Dr Nicky Hayes, BPS President
12.15 – 1pm	BPS Careers talk	BPS Careers team online
1 – 2.15	Lunch and posters
2.15-3.15	Parallel Sessions 3 Exploration of parental experiences of diagnosis and early management of FPIES in the United Kingdom Rebecca Bakr Cardiff Metropolitan University Are CYP with ALN at a systemic disadvantage regarding Welsh language opportunities? Eleri Davies Cardiff University The Psychosocial Cancer Evaluation Toolkit Zoe Cooke University of Wales Trinity Saint David	Parallel Session 4 The effectiveness of Virtual Reality technology in promoting emotional wellbeing Laura Fleetwood CTM UHB Exploring the lived experience of therapeutic practitioners who practice through the medium of Welsh Haf Rhys University of South Wales The Effect of Social Acceptance on Reasoning Task Performance in Undergraduate Students Lloyd Thomas University of Wales Trinity Saint David
3.15 – 3.30	Coffee Break
3.30 – 4pm	The changing face(s) of work: Integrity, ethics, and wellbeing	Dr Ceri Phelps, Principal Lecturer, University of Wales Trinity Saint David
4pm	Closing remarks	