WELCOME

to Careers in Psychology 2018! This is the perfect event for anyone looking to discover where psychology can take them in their chosen career.

Psychology is a diverse and rewarding option - more than 750,000 people in the UK currently work in an area that involves psychology.

This event will help you to find out more about the different career options that are available, with inspirational talks from psychologists across several fields giving you an insight into their own journey to a career in psychology. You will also have the chance to explore opportunities for additional study and meet potential employers at our exhibition stands.
