Engagement with Literature Skills

Good engagement with academic and industry sources, making strong arguments. References are cited well. More critical appraisals and summaries could have added value to your work.

Knowledge and Understanding Skills

The report and demonstration reflects a thorough understanding of Digital Forensics. Discussions about the intersection of DF and cybersecurity, as well as the job market, are addressed well.

Cognitive and Intellectual Skills

The evaluation of tools and methodologies is well-addressed, with comparative insights. The inclusion of tables enhances clarity and very elaborative. Critical analysis is present.

Practical Application Skills

Practical application done well, with clear tool evaluations and simulated investigations. The work effectively integrates real-world scenarios.

Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice

The report is well-structured and formatted, with appropriate use of headings, tables, and figures. The discussion highlights skills relevant to both academic and professional contexts. Too many information. Could have limited to the word count limitations. 15000+ words is too much work for this module.
