

Newton House 2021

Health and Wellbeing ieched.

Dinefwr Park and Castle Llandeilo

CBHC

RCAHMW

Coflein.gov.uk

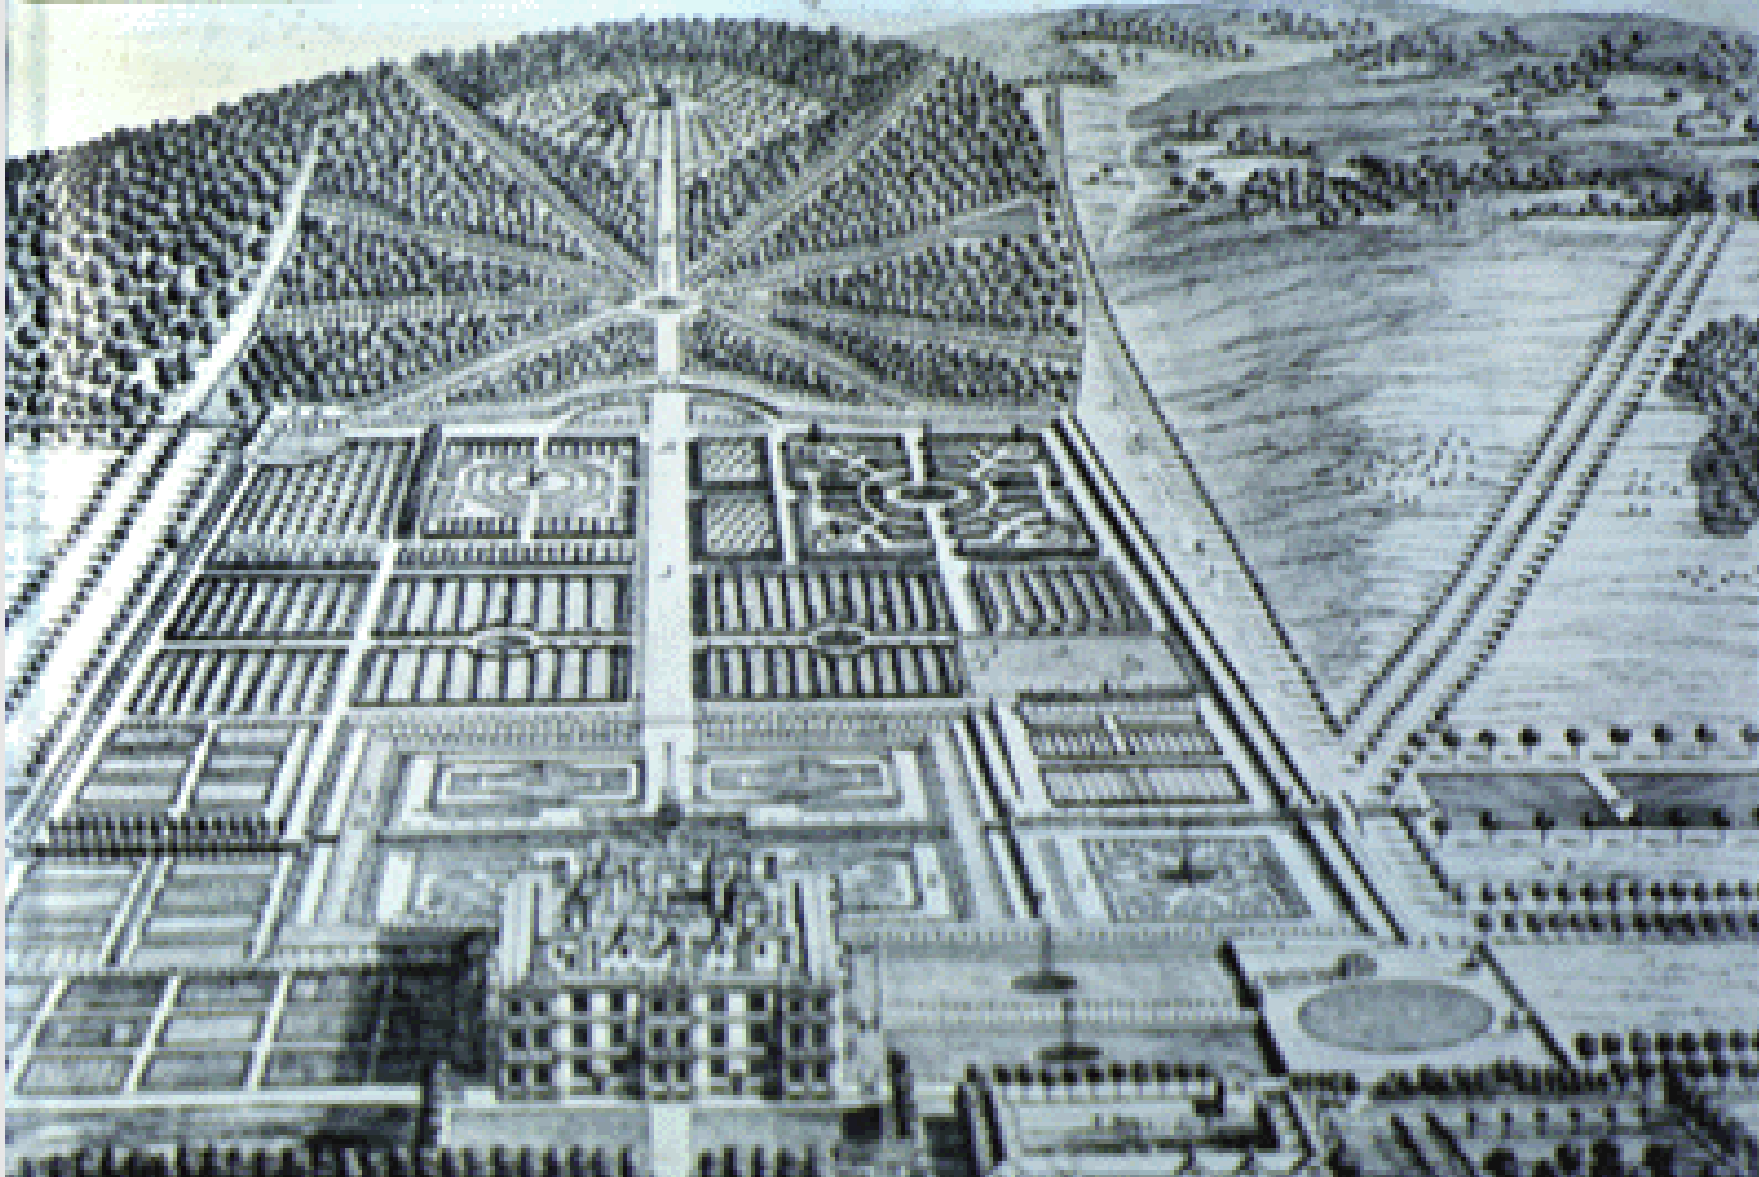

Capability Brown
landscape gardens

Nathaniel Dance, (later Sir Nathaniel Holland, Bt) Lancelot
('Capability') Brown oil on canvas, circa 1769 29 5/8 in. x 24 7/8 in.
(752 mm x 632 mm)

Longleat before Capability Brown

Longleat, Wiltshire (1757)
Before Capability Brown:
Rigid Bi-Lateral Symmetry by Henry Wise and Gorge
London influenced by ad
Andre Le Notre

Longleat after Capability Brown

Capability Brown
- Longleat gardens (900 acres)

Brown created the effect of the appearance of unrestrained nature by planting a vast stretch of lawn punctuated by small clusters of trees or single trees irregularly placed in wavy belts. He shaped a formal garden into a naturalistic landscape undoing all that London and Wise had done before.

"All gardening is a landscape painting"

William Kent

(trained painter and landscape gardener died 1748)

Newton House from the north as depicted in an early 18th century image showing possible burgage plots, farm buildings and a formal garden

The smooth flowing lines of the park east of Newton House

Thomas Gainsborough (1750) Mr and Mrs Andrews [Oil on canvas 69.8x119.4cm]

Sir Joshua Reynolds ^[L]_[SEP] Lady
Cecil Rice, 1762
(Newton House
Llandeilo)_[SEP] ^[L]_[SEP] oil on canvas
[SEP] ^[L][SEP] 126.37 cm x 100.65 cm