

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
General Comments
This assignment missed important sections of the brief. This had a major impact on your marks and explains the low mark. You need to read the brief carefully to make sure you can maximise your mark in future assignments.	100	36
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
You have produced your report that includes the sections requested, however you have only one resource that you have referenced. Your section on routing is very brief and you have not used any critical appraisal or summaries of articles to support the section.	20	3
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
There was a very brief statement with your practical tasks and these were just tsemets of what they are showing. You made and presented your presentation and perfomed this to a reasonable standard.	15	7
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
For this section you were meant to analyse the techniquas adn technologies you were using for the practical. This however was not what you were doing. Your statements were brief and just a statement of fact.	15
4. Practical Application Skills
For this section you created the domain adn the child domain. You Iso set up DHCP on the servre. You did not though crete the user accounts or set up the IIs server.	40	20
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
Your report was of a good standard and contained all the relevant sections. It flowed well with minimum referncing being and no spelling errors and included the relevant screenshots. Your presentation also was well produced.	10	6
