

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
While you have successfully described the users and their roles. There is no evidence that you have successfully implemented this within your solution. There is no evidence of the front end being developed. Please make sure you read the rubric and provided all evidence to support your submission.	25	3
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
You are missing the data dictionary from your submission. Make sure you read the rubric before submitting. Your ERD is difficult to read especially around the relationships. Make sure when presenting diagrams they are easily readable. You have a good description of the user requirements however you could have added more depth to them. While you haven't shown any evidence of the process of 1nf to 3nf the majority of your tables are in 3nf. Make sure you show your working outs.	20	6
4. Practical Application Skills
SQL scripts for creating tables are good. However there is no evidence that the scripts have been run. There is evidence of foreign keys and primary keys. You were missing staff and supplier entities from your solution. Make sure you extract the entities from the scenario.	45	8
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
The document is poorly presented with unreadable screenshots. The structure of the document needs more attention. Label any screenshots and make sure your contents page is presented correctly. You have several areas of blank lines around the document. Make sure you proof read your document before submitting.	10	4
