

Exemplar 1 – grade 75

Engagement with Literature Skills (23/30)

You have a good range of academic sources in this piece. you have made an excellent effort at reading around the subject and use this to form effective discussions. there are some formatting errors in the referencing that as you have identified with careful proofreading can be eliminated.

Knowledge and Understanding Skills (24/30)

You have made good use of your sources to evaluate and reflect on your time in university. In general you have interpreted these well.

Cognitive and Intellectual Skills (15/20)

You have presented a clear and logical line of reasoning in your reflection, it would have been beneficial in some areas to expand on this by suggesting areas that you could have taken different actions however you have clearly shown that you have developed as a learner through the feedback you have received.

Practical Application Skills (7/10)

In general your reflection links the real examples you give with theoretical perspectives well.

Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice (6/10)

This is a coherent and generally well written piece with few typos, there is one significant error highlighted in the body that with careful time proofreading could have been eliminated. However this piece develops an effective reflection that is clearly well structured.

Exemplar 2 – grade 47

Engagement with Literature Skills (26/30)

You have an excellent range of credible, academic sources that you reference well, you clearly demonstrate that you have read around the subject of assessment well.

Knowledge and Understanding Skills (3/30)

You have written this piece in a clear academic style, Unfortunately you have not reflected on your own learner journey through your time in university.

Cognitive and Intellectual Skills (5/20)

Whilst you have provided a clear logical argument in your essay you have not reflected on your learner journey through your time in university.

Practical Application Skills (6/10)

You have discussed and linked theoretical perspectives to both benchmark documents and practice very well. these are applied consistently.

Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice (7/10)

Your essay is well presented and flows in a logical manner, It would have benefited from the use of section headers to develop more of a portfolio style.

Exemplar 3 – grade 59

Engagement with Literature Skills (18/30)

You have demonstrated a reasonable amount of reading around the subject and have included good academic pieces to support your work. there are some formatting errors in your referencing, if you'd like to discuss this please book a tutorial.

Knowledge and Understanding Skills (17/30)

You have demonstrated a reasonable knowledge of the subject, it would have been beneficial if you had included more critical discussion of the topic by identifying some of the negatives of these approaches. However, where you have included a reflection you have applied the concepts reasonably well.

Cognitive and Intellectual Skills (13/20)

You have presented a reasonably consistent line of discussion through out the portfolio and have made some attempts to interpret the information you have found. However you have not included a significant amount of reflection on these points.

Practical Application Skills (5/10)

You have discussed some theoretical models and made attempts to build link this to real life examples, had you included more reflection on these it would have been far easier for your reader to see how these apply to a real world scenario.

Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice (6/10)

This portfolio is generally well presented, there are a few typos that I have identified through the body of the work. As noted in the text where you have discussed an image it would have been beneficial to identify these more clearly.
