PRESENTATION OF EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

Sigitas Dobrovolskis (2019925)
Academic and Employability skills
Lecturer: Afzal Munna

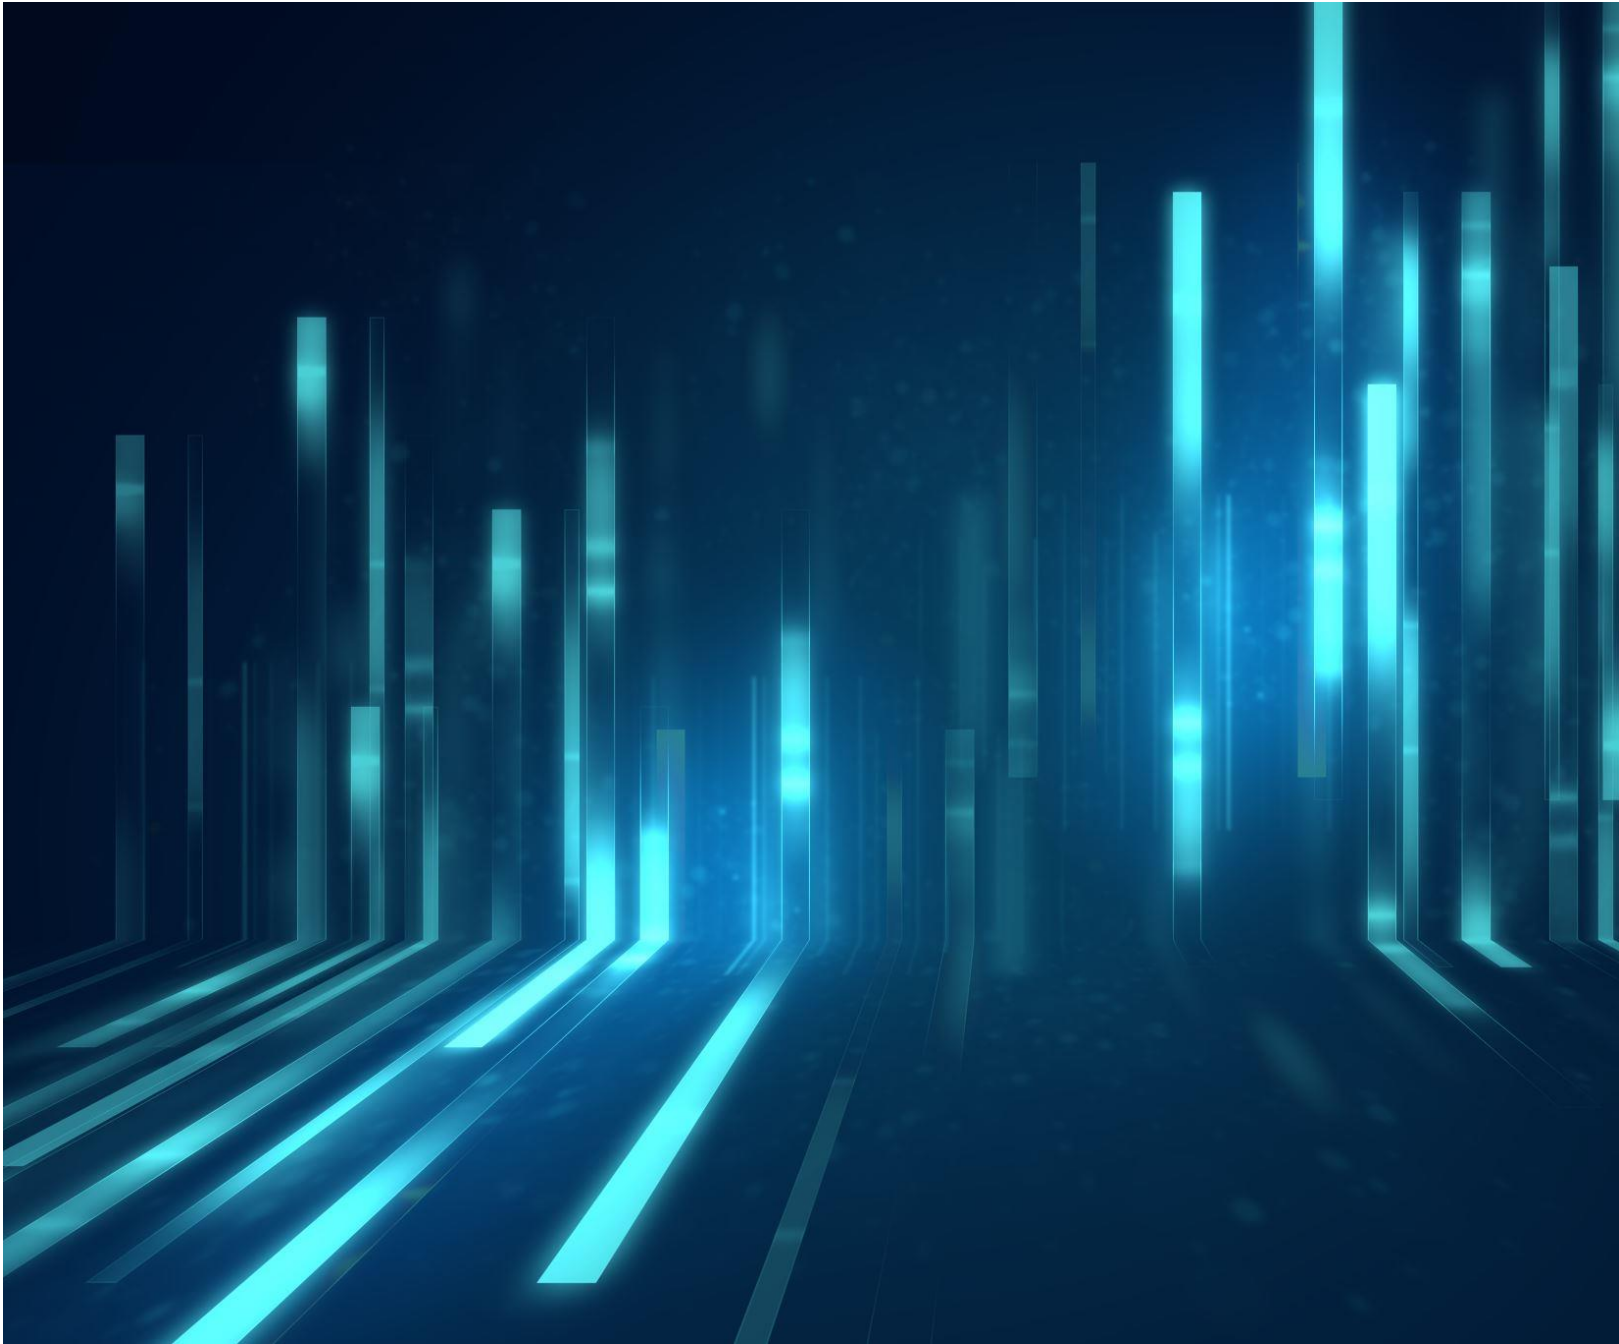

Introduction

In my presentation I will introduce you with skills needed for the position of a Game Programmer and how I will use knowledge gained at UWTSD London.

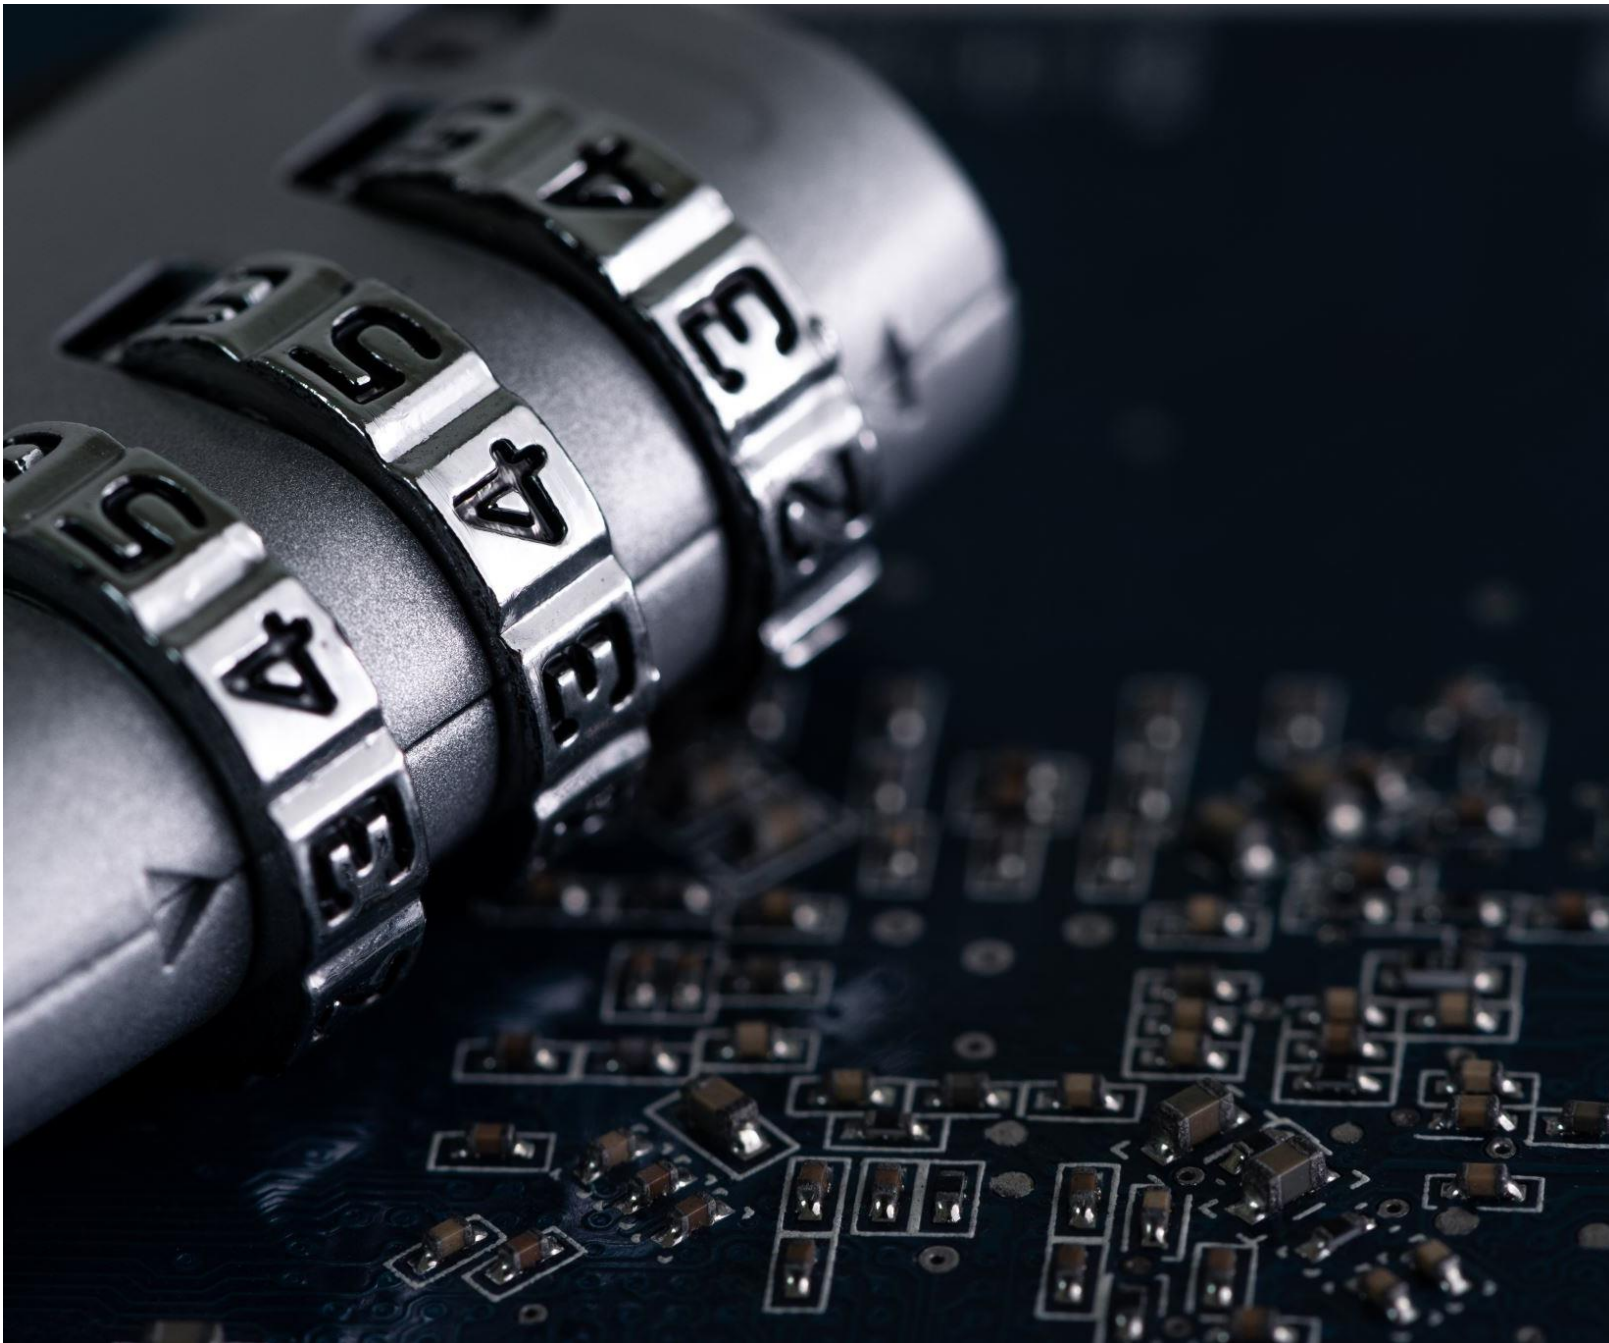

Desired Position

✓ Game Programmer

Skills required

- ▶ MSc in Computer Science
- ▶ Experience in Python programming
- ▶ Team working skills
- ▶ Communication skills
- ▶ Self-motivated
- ▶ Problem solving skills
- ▶ Excellent time management
(reed.co.uk,2021)

Skills to discuss

- Team working skills: one of the most important skills in any job, where working with others.

Bochenski, (2020)

- Effective time management: work smarter, not harder.

(MindTools Team,2016)

Skills comparison

Skills required	Skills I have
▪ Flexibility to meet deadlines ▪ Effective team working skills ▪ Communication skills ▪ Self-motivated ▪ Problem solving skills ▪ Excellent time management (Prospects,2020)	✓ Python programming ✓ Team working skills ✓ Communication skills ✓ Problem solving

SWOT analysis

Strengths

- Motivated
- Experience in programming
- Quick learner
- Problem solver

Weakness

- Time management
- English second language

Opportunities

I should start improving my language by attending English courses. I could improve my time management by not being late for classes.

Threats

All classes are held online, due to pandemic, which makes harder to understand and engage.

Conclusion

To reach my dream job I still need to improve some of my skills, as Audrey Hepburn says “Nothing is impossible , the word itself says ‘I’m possible’!”
(Hepburn, 2019)
