

WhatDoTheyKnow

Stoke on Trent City Council

A principal council, an upper tier local authority, a body responsible for highways, a unitary authority in England, a local council in the west midlands, an education authority, a council with district-level functions and a council with district-level functions in England

The UK has multiple tiers of local government and not all local authorities have responsibility for education. This public authority is one of around 200 local authorities in England, Scotland and Wales which do have responsibilities for education.

This council has the functions of a district level council. Councils of this type are usually the primary planning authority and council tax billing authority and have responsibility for, among other things, refuse collection, housing, food safety inspections, dog wardens, parks and street cleaning as well as cemeteries and crematoria.
